Nationwide crackdown on PFI, 106 arrested

NIA, ED conduct searches across 15 states; top leaders arrested for terror funding, recruiting youth for terror acts

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Chennai/ New Delhi/ Bengaluru/ Vijayawada / Kochi

IN one of their biggest joint operations against terror funding and terror activities, the National Investigation Agency (NIA) and the Enforcement Directorate (ED) on Thursday arrested 106 activists of the Popular Front of India (PFI) from 93 locations across 15 states, including Kerala, Tamil Nadu, Maharashtra, Telangana, Assam, Andhra Pradesh and Delhi even as top officials met to discuss a likely ban on the organisation.

During the coordinated nationwide operation, which began at around 3:30 am, PFI Chairman O M A Salam, national general secretary V P Nasarudeen Elamaram and the organisation's Delhi unit head Parvez Ahmed, among others, were taken into custody. Salam was picked up from his home at Kerala's Malappuram, after the place was searched. Ahmed's residence in Delhi's Jamia Nagar was also raided. Raids were also carried out in Karnataka, Uttar Pradesh, Rajasthan, Madhya Pradesh, Goa, West Bengal, Bihar and Manipur. The NIA said 45 of the total arrests were made by the agency.

Even as the raids and arrests were underway, Union Home Minister Amit Shah met National Security Advisor Ajit Doval, Home Secretary Ajay Bhalla and NIA Director-General Dinkar Gupta to discuss details of the case, the likely fallout and implications.

"While 19 accused have been arrested from Kerala, 11 have been arrested from Tamil Nadu, 7 from Karnataka, 4 from Andhra Pradesh, 2 from Rajasthan, 1 each from UP and Telangana," an NIA statement read.

Among the arrested leaders in Kerala were PFI's state president C P Mohammed Basheer, national council member P Koya and senior functionaries Jaseer K P, Shafeer K P, E Abu Backer, E M Abdul Rahiman, Najumudeen, Sainuddeen T S, Yahiya Koya Thangal, K Muhammedali, C T Sulaiman, P K Usman, Karamana Ashraf Moulavi, Sadiq Ahmed, Shihas, Ansari P and M M Mujeeb.

The 11 PFI functionaries arrested in Tamil Nadu were identified as Syed Ishaaq, Advocate Khalid Mohammed, A M Idris, Mohamed Abuthahir, S Khaja Maideen, Yasar Arafat, Barakathullah, Fayaz Ahamed, M Mohammed Ali Jinnah, Mohammed Yousuf and A S Ismail.

K'taka police pick up 15 for questioning

Bengaluru: The Karnataka police on Thursday launched a crackdown against the Popular Front of India (PFI) and 'held' 15 people from different parts of the state. The police said the arrests have been made under Sec 153A and 120B of the IPC for promoting enmity among religious communities and criminal conspiracy. Earlier, Bengaluru Police Commissioner C H Pratap Reddy said based on inputs from the National Investigation Agency and Central agencies, the city police registered a First Information Report (328/22) against 19 PFI members at KG Halli police station in Bengaluru East, on Wednesday. P4

PayCM row: Cong social media wing member held

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

BENGALURU city police have arrested five persons, including a member of the Congress social media wing, on charges of pasting 'PayCM' posters which carried Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai's photo and a QR code. Three others, who were picked up for questioning around 2 am on Thursday, have been let off after being served a notice. The five accused, who have been arrested, will be produced before a court after completion of formalities. The arrests were made based on five separate complaints filed by BBMP officials.

Meanwhile, there was no action initiated by the police against the posters which carried images of senior Congress leader Siddaramaiah and KPCC president D K Shivakumar as no complaint was filed. "The five arrested are Sanjay, Congress social media wing employee, Siddaiah, Vinod, Vishwamurthy and Madan. CCTV footage in the vicinity clearly shows the five pasting the posters. The arrested are from Laggere and surrounding areas," R Srinivas Gowda, Deputy Commissioner of Police (Central), told reporters.

Meanwhile, the three who were detained and released, include B R Naidu, former head of Congress social media wing, and D A Gagan Yadav, social media resource person and nephew of former Congress minister A Krishnappa.

If no jobs for Kannadigas, no incentives for you: New Bill warns industries

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

IF industries or establishments in Karnataka fail to provide reservation to Kannadigas as per the state's industrial policy, they will not be eligible for concession of land, tax rebate, deferment of tax or any kind of grant in aid, said Kannada and Culture Minister V Sunil Kumar, who tabled the 'Kannada Language Comprehensive Development Bill', which was passed by the Legislative Assembly on Thursday. Kumar said the aim of the Bill is to promote extensive use and propagation of Kannada.

The state's Industrial Policy 2020-25 prescribes certain percentage of reservation for locals. It also stresses on establishing Kannada teaching units for non-Kannadigas in industries which have more than 100 employees.

The Bill gives powers to the government to take action against those who violate its provisions. The government said the new law was needed as the existing rules to implement Kannada have failed to achieve the desired results.

The new Bill stresses on implementation of Kannada in education, employment, policies, communication and technology and introduction of Kannada as one of the languages in higher, technical and professional courses. It provides reservation for those who study in Kannada medium schools in higher, technical and professional education and makes Kannada an essential language for seeking employment in government, local statutory and non-statutory bodies. P4

Bhagwat breaks new ground, visits mosque and madrasa

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR @New Delhi

RSS chief Mohan Bhagwat on Thursday broke new ground by visiting a mosque and a madrasa for the first time, expanding the organisation's outreach to the Islamic community.

That the visits happened on a day when the National Intelligence Agency launched a nationwide swoop on activists of the Popular Front of India for alleged acts of terror, indicated an attempt of the Sangh to draw a line between the radical elements and those in the Islamic mainstream.

Cong prez poll: It's advantage Sachin Pilot, Tharoor

CYNTHIA CHANDRAN @T'Puram

THE Gandhi family is learnt to have convinced Ashok Gehlot to step down as Rajasthan chief minister and hand over the post to Sachin Pilot, since the former will contest the Congress presidential polls. Gehlot is expected to quit in the coming days.

"Gehlot tried his best to convince Rahul Gandhi that he would be able to handle both the posts. But Rahulji made it clear it was not possible,'' said a source. "Priyankaji too was adamant that Sachin has to be made the CM,'' he said. Gehlot then tried in vain to get his loyalist and Rajasthan Speaker C P Joshi chosen as his successor.

Rahul spoke his mind at a press conference on Thursday when he said the one-person, one-post decision taken at the Chintan Shivir in Udaipur would apply to the presidential polls as well.

A source close to Pilot said, Gehlot in his "desperation" is still trying every trick to ensure Pilot does not succeed him. "There are attempts from Gehlot's side to delay his resignation as CM till Diwali or the Gujarat Assembly elections in December. But the ploy is unlikely to succeed since Rahul wants the rift in the party to end before his yatra reaches Rajasthan in October-November."

Stonewall to arrest sea erosion hits a wall

BOSKY KHANNA @Bengaluru

THE construction of stonewalls by the Karnataka government along the state's coastline in an attempt to stop sea erosion seems to have hit a roadblock. Experts from Kerala and Karnataka have raised objections to the project.

Officials from Kerala Fisheries Department have written to their counterparts in Karnataka and to the Port Authority of India (PAI), stating that the stonewall coming up along Someshwara beaches and other areas is leading to heavy sea erosion and high tides on the neighbouring state's coast. They said the construction is also adversely affecting fishermen.

Experts and officials from the Fisheries Department of Karnataka have also raised similar concerns. They say the sea walls are being built in patches. The walls are being built in the sea, instead of land, which according to them is a futile exercise. They, however, say that the stonewall built in Marwanthe between Kundapur and Bhatkal is good and should be replicated in other places too.

The PAI and Karnataka Public Works Department (PWD) have jointly spent Rs 5 crore this financial year for the construction of 400 metres of stonewall. A metre of the wall costs Rs 1.25 lakh.

Officials say marking and survey of storm water drain encroachment under way

A one-storey building which encroaches a storm water drain being demolished, in Shantiniketan Layout of Munnekolala on Thursday | VINOD KUMAR T

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

THE Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) authorities demolished two houses, allegedly built on storm water drains (SWD), at Kasavanahalli in Mahadevapura on Thursday. The Palike officials said that even as marking and survey of drain encroachment is underway, the demolition drive in the upscale Greenwood Regency has been completed after slabs covering the drains were removed.

The slab clearance operation was carried out on a one-storey building in Shantiniketan Layout of Munnekolala and a four-storeyed building in Pappaiah Reddy Layout near Greenwood Regency on Sarjapura Road.

"A one-storey building was constructed on a rajakaluve at Shantiniketan Layout near Munnekolala. Those who were living in the house were served a notice in advance by the Tahsildar of the Revenue Department to vacate the house, following which the entire building was razed using a Hitachi breaker," said a senior BBMP official.

The official said a notice was also issued by the Tahsildar to the occupants of the four-storied building which had encroached a rajakaluve in Papaya Reddy Layout. The BBMP had demolished the compound wall on September 13, and it gave a week's time to the occupants to vacate the premises. After the occupants vacated, the front portion of the structure was cleared by a Hitachi breaker. The use of Hitachi breaker poses risks to neighbouring buildings and hence the operation was carried out carefully.

The work on clearing the slab on the rain gutter near Greenwood Regency on Sarjapur Road is almost complete and the iron bars installed on the slab now need to be removed. In addition, clearance of a bridge constructed on the Raja Canal behind Marathahalli Police Station, near BWSSB's STP site, has been completed.

Official uses 'fake' letterhead, writes to babus

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

A BBMP official is facing charges of misusing a fake letterhead of a non-existent officer of an employees union and making illegal correspondence with Additional Chief Secretary, Urban Development Department and Chief Commissioner.

The accused, M Mayanna, has earlier been raided by the Anti-Corruption Bureau (ACB) for allegedly amassing wealth disproportionate to his known sources of income. K Narasimha, Executive Officer, BBMP Road Infrastructure Department has filed a complaint against Mayanna.

A case has been registered against Mayanna under Section 420 of IPC at Halasuru Gate Police Station.

Responding to the complaint, Mayanna said that the complainant is acting at the behest of another person Amruth Raj who was removed from Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike Naukara Sangha. "He (Amruth Raj) is holding a grudge against me. He has petitioned against our association which is a registered one by the Cooperation Department. He has received a setback in court and has now floated a new employees association and is attempting to sabotage our association. Earlier too, it is he who got me raided by the ACB. He also got a false rape case filed against me but was exposed," said Mayanna.

Landloser refuses to allow site owners build houses in Arkavathy 18th Block

S LALITHA @Bengaluru

A bitter war is on for the last five years between a family which has given 14.5 acres of its property for the 18th Block of Arkavathy Layout and the 500-plus site owners here. With the BDA yet to give the family alternative land as compensation, one individual in the family is refusing to allow any allottee to carry out any construction here. Repeated visits to the BDA office and the police have not helped the site owners.

The Block is located off Hennur Road in Gedalahall and is part of the massive Arkavathy Layout where 8,813 sites were proposed. In the land taken from the Reddy family, 300 sites were created by the BDA.

Niranjan Narasaiah was allotted a site in 2005 and after the mandatory 10-year-lease period for sites, he got it registered in 2015. "I am yet to start building anything here. A family of landlosers, led by Rame Reddy, does not allow any of us to build houses here. Three senior citizens, site owners, have already passed away waiting," he said. The sites are full of weeds and bushes and Reddy does not allow anyone to clear it too, he added.

Shiva Prakash G had paid Rs 2.27 lakh in 2006 for his 30x40 sqft site. He told TNIE, "The entrance to the sites behind the Bangalore International School has been sealed with debris by Reddy. A family had begun building a wall three years ago and he came and demolished it."

Arkavathy Layout 18th Block House Owners Welfare Association president R Subramanya is the only individual who built his house here before Reddy started preventing the others. He said, "Whenever any site owner approaches the Hennur police for help, they tell us to go to the BDA office. The problem is that BDA is completely at fault here as they did not give Reddy's family 40 per cent of developed land in exchange for the land taken."

The Supreme Court had clearly mentioned that priority in allotment of sites must be given to land losers only. A top BDA official confirmed that alternative sites were yet to be handed over to Reddy's family as well as another family here.

Asked about all the charges against him by the site owners, 60-year-old Reddy, a contractor with the BWSSB, admitted that he was not allowing anyone to build their houses here. "I have lost my land running into 25,550 sqft here and I am running around daily to the BDA office requesting them to give me a proper alternative land in any of the 22 Blocks of Arkavathy Layout. Giving me some site near drainage or in the wrong direction will not help. I am keen on sites in the East or North. If I am given the site tomorrow, I will allow everyone to go ahead and use the land."

BBMP workers carry out repair work after concrete on the Sumanahalli bridge came off, exposing a gaping hole | VINOD KUMAR T

Sumanahalli bridge repair to take 2+ mnths

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

REPAIR work on the Sumanahalli bridgecame, which caved in for the second time in two years, was taken up on Thursday after the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike faced heavy criticism for shoddy work or not maintaining the structure.

Palike officials said the damage was due lack of maintenance and heavy rains. Now, the broken slab is being removed and reattaching of iron bars will be taken up. To ensure there is no traffic jam, the affected area has been barricaded and traffic was allowed. The officials said it may take 60 to 80 days to complete the work.

An official said the work of cutting the whole slab around the damaged part, re-attaching iron bars and putting concrete and repairing it is going on. And by November end and first week of December the work will be completed.

About 9 sqft hole was detected two days ago.

Earlier, engineer-in-chief B S Prahalad said the flyover was constructed by Bangalore Development Authority (BDA) in 2004-06 and was handed over to the BBMP in 2014-15. But due to the negligence and lack of maintenance, gaping holes are repeatedly appearing on the flyover.

Two years ago in November 2019, a hole was detected on the same flyover and due to repair work then, traffic movement took a hit especially near Sumanahalli Junction, Kantheerava Nagar and Kottigepalya.

Edu dept joins hands with pvt firm to develop govt schools

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

THE Department of School Education and Literacy has entered into a collaboration with Sathva Media and Consulting Private Limited to develop 105 government schools to meet the aspirations of National Education Policy 2020. The agreement was inked in the presence of Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai and Education Minister B C Nagesh on Thursday.

Nagesh said the Education Department and private stakeholder will work along with the District Institute for Education and Training (DIET) to develop them as model schools. Besides providing and developing the learning infrastructure, including STEM (Science Technology Engineering, Maths) labs and transport facilities, they will strive towards getting quality education to students, improvement of their results to prepare them for their future, and make them competitive. The students will be trained in moral science, spoken English, computer and other professional skills.

Meanwhile, teachers will be trained on improving their teaching techniques. They will also impart training to head masters and education department officials including block resource coordinators and cluster resource coordinators towards enhancing their professional efficiency. They will also strive towards increasing enrolment of students in schools and Anganawadis too, he said.

He added that they will also involve school alumni, respective school development committees, school monitoring committees and parents towards development of schools.

PETER VIDAL

23rd September: I've been talking about astrological literature this week. Some of the greatest examples are to be found in the Vedas. It's not that precise instructions for life, or directions for the future, are given but that we read about the sun chariot sweeping through the sky, bringing day and night, light and dark, and forging our destiny as it does so. It's really quite wonderful.

ARIES
(Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
Superb planetary aspects go a long way towards cheering you up after recent disappointments or frustrations. Domestic arrangements look fortunate but you must be sure to seek a consensus. If you ask other people what they want, you might actually change your own opinions!

TAURUS
(Apr. 21 - May 21)
There is always something to be learned from the most innocuous situations. Now, perhaps, you may understand the advantages of linking your financial future with the fortunes of people who have a better business sense than you. You're still reluctant to let others know everything that's happening - perhaps with good reason.

GEMINI
(May 22 - June 21)
The overall planetary picture is rather helpful.. You are inclined to dream of future riches but there is still a chance that you may inflict upon yourself a series of financial blunders. If I could give you any advice, then it would be to check, double-check - and treble check - all details.

CANCER
(June 22 - July 23)
Some kind of a power-struggle is bound to be the result of planetary aspects which in all other respects are highly positive. You need to explore your own limits by issuing challenges to other people: their reactions will show whether you have gone too far - or not!

LEO
(July 24 - Aug. 23)
You should be proud of your achievements, but there are new ways to express your creative potential. What you have to do is find a method of working which allows you to get the best out of your talents.. You may also be seizing the moral high ground, answering a question of right and wrong.

VIRGO
(Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
The Moon's position today will do much to strengthen your emotional commitment to your own future. It is time to stop putting others first and to think about yourself for a change. If there's any chance of making a break with the bad habits of the past - then take it!

LIBRA
(Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
The downside of current energetic trends is that you may take on too much and wear yourself out. Some of you are by now planning for as quiet a period as possible, circumstances permitting, of course. You will soon be in a much stronger position at home, by the way.

SCORPIO
(Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
The Moon's helpful position is bound to lend you greater confidence, especially if you have been suffering from any personal doubts. You must by now be fully aware that you are on the right course, but do other people agree? Perhaps they need to be persuaded.

SAGITTARIUS
(Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
Emotional involvements and responsibilities should be your priority rather than, say, associations based on work, business or shared hobbies. This way lies greater personal fulfilment and satisfaction. You're entering a more adventurous and assertive phase, so the indications are excellent.

CAPRICORN
(Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
If you have been holding your peace, the time has come to air your grievances and set the record straight. Be fair, though, and have the self-confidence to admit that the next person's opinions are as valid as your own. The best way to convince the people you live with that you are right, is to demonstrate that your ideas actually work.

AQUARIUS
(Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
The Sun and Mars, two fiery planets, are now drawing close to a point from which they will play a profound role in your worldly ambitions. Those of you pursuing professional goals must now switch into top gear, and all of you will have to make some quick decisions.

PISCES
(Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
It is success in the world which pleases you at the moment, especially increased status and prosperity. These things will reflect on your private life, making you happier and more content than any amount of navel-gazing or tinkering with your emotions.

Plaint against RGUHS registrar for multiple posts, misuse of funds

NAMRATA SINDWANI
@Bengaluru

THE Karnataka State Association of Management of Nursing and Allied Health Science Institutions has filed a complaint against Rajiv Gandhi University of Health Sciences Registrar Dr Ramakrishna Reddy before the Lokayukta alleging various malpractice.

Complainant Dr D Harsha, general secretary of the association, alleged that Dr Ramakrishna was holding five different posts -- professor, community medicine, Bangalore Medical College and Research Institute; Member-Secretary, Paramedical Board; special officer, Karnataka Nursing and Paramedical Sciences Education Authority as well as Registrar (Evaluation) and Administration in-charge, both in RGUHS -- and was drawing all the salaries and related benefits.

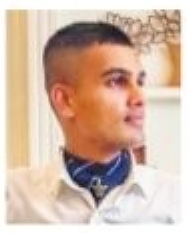
The complaint also alleged financial irregularities in the process of renewal of fixed deposits, illegal withdrawal of money as well as payments worth Rs 69 lakh made to staff who were not working at all.

The association also alleged discrepancies worth Rs 14 crore collected for examination fee and penalty. No proper records or vouchers were maintained for miscellaneous expenses like fuel, snacks etc., the Karnataka Transparency in Public Procurement Act was not followed in the process of obtaining items and goods amounting to crores were obtained without any tenders, it alleged. In another allegation, the complaint stated that Dr Ramakrishna got his son admitted to a medical college using his influence. Dr Ramakrishna Reddy, however, has denied all allegations. He said that during his course in the paramedical board, he had noticed malpractices and had voiced out to the authorities. In revenge for the complaints made against the association, the complaint has been filed against him, he said.

Six Air Force college staffers booked for murder of trainee

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

SIX staffers of the Air Force Technical College (AFTC) in Jalahalli have been booked for murder under section 302 of the IPC after the suspicious death of a 27-year-old student of the college Ankit Kumar Jha, who was found dead on the college premises on Wednesday. The six suspects are of the ranks of Air Commodore, Group Captain and Wing Commander. The Gangammanagudi police have registered a case based on a complaint by the victim's brother Aman Jha, a native of Uttam Nagar in West Delhi, filed around 2.20 am on Thursday. Jha has left behind a seven-page death note, allegedly mentioning the names of all the six suspects. "Investigation is on. No arrests have been made. It appears that he has died by hanging himself. The postmortem report will ascertain the cause of the death. The statements of the suspects can indicate why the victim took the extreme step,," said an officer.



"One trainee officer, who was discharged from service after court of inquiry, was found hanging yesterday evening. A case has been registered," said Vinayak Patil, DCP (North).

Speaking to TNIE, Richa Thakur, the victim's cousin, alleged that Jha was murdered.

"He was under severe mental trauma as disciplinary action was taken against him. He was also terminated in July. The details of his termination cannot be shared unless his parents allow me to do so. While talking to me over phone, Ankit told me that he was being forced to sign certain documents. We suspect he must have died around 4.30 pm on Wednesday after sending a message to his brother Aman, who was in Kochi. The AFTC officials did not inform us about the death. After repeated phone calls went unanswered, we went there by 7 pm, and learnt about his death," she said. Two AFTC staffers took us to a small medical room where the body was kept. Later it was shifted to the MS Ramaiah Hospital's mortuary. "Around 4.47 am, AFTC officials handed over the suicide note, and two mobile phones to the Gangammanagudi police, who gave it to us to read as it was in Hindi. The note mentions harassment," she added.

SDPI demands release of 5 PFI leaders in 24 hrs

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Mangaluru

THE Social Democratic Party of India (SDPI) termed the National Investigation Agency (NIA) raid as illegal and demanded the release of five Popular Front India (PFI) leaders within 24 hours failing which they have warned of launching a democratic fight.

SDPI district president Abubakkar Kulai said, "The NIA sleuths showed a warrant when they asked and it was about a raid on the PFI office. But they broke open the door and also broke the door glass. They said they have to search the office but they illegally entered our office, ransacked it and documents. They have even seized a party office agreement copy, details of various programmes organised by the SDPI, a photo album, a laptop and two hard discs. They have also seized booklets related to the party. We are seeking legal help as to what action can be taken against illegal entry."

He further alleged, "The NIA raid was politically motivated. BJP is not able to tolerate the fast growth of SDPI. Even the public is against the BJP and their own party workers have revolted. Hence to satisfy their party workers, the NIA and the ED are raiding SDPI and are also targeting the opposition parties."

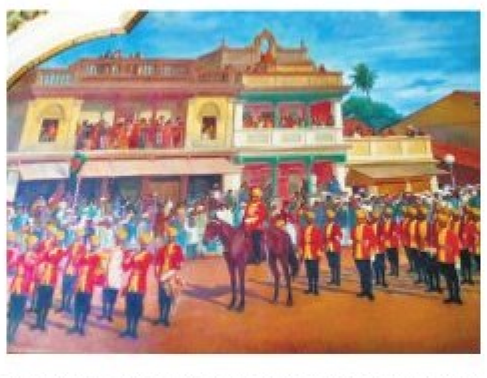
DESCENDANTS OF MYSORE LANCERS TO CELEBRATE HEROES TODAY

DONNA EVA @ Bengaluru

OVER a century after the Mysore Lancers participated in the liberation of Haifa in modern-day Israel, their descendants are set to honour them in Bengaluru on Friday, celebrated as Haifa Day on the anniversary of the Battle of Haifa.

The Mysore Lancers, who served as part of the 15th (Imperial Service) Cavalry Brigade, were instrumental in fighting off Turkish-German forces in the battle during World War I. An army of 500 soldiers were sent by Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar to fight alongside the British Army.

"One of the residents of Haifa in 1918 was Abdu'l-Baha, the son of the founder of the Baha'i faith, and designated by him as his successor. The commander of the Turkish forces in Syria and Palestine, Jamal Pasha, had threatened to crucify Abdu'l-Baha and destroy the Baha'i holy places in Haifa and nearby Acre," said Dinesh Rao, Secretary State Baha'i Council of Karnataka. With impregnable fortifications, Baha put his life on the line, and the Mysore and the Jodhpur Lancers were successful in launching a surprise assault, and captured the town.



After being involved in several battles, the Lancers was eventually disbanded in 1920. "I had relatives from both sides fighting as part of the Lancers, Limbaji Pawar, my great grandfather on my father's side, as well as his brother-in-law, Venkata Rao Maney, who unfortunately perished during the war. On my mother's side, I have my great grandfather Rajoji Kesarkar, who returned home with a bullet wound. There were many stories to be told, which we wanted the people to know," Praveen Maney, a financial analyst working in Bengaluru, and part of the Mysore Lancers Heritage Foundation, told TNIE.

Maney recalls the hardships faced by the loss of a relative and the trauma Kesarkar's wound brought to his family. "We heard a story of my great grandmother praying for his safe return. He would make akkiroti on the advice of priests as dhan. When he came back wounded, she was upset until he told her that when he was shot at, it felt like something was there between him and the bullet," said Maney. He also mentioned that his ancestor, Pawar had also brought back a German sword from when he defeated a German solider in a hand-to-hand combat.

The foundation with several descendants as its members will be honouring the Lancers in Bengaluru for the first time, at the Mysore Lancers Memorial on JC Road.

CONGMEN BOOKED: 'PAYCM' POSTER ROW ERUPTS IN COUNCIL

Congress MLCs slam govt for police action, say criticism must be taken in right spirit

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Legislative Council on Thursday witnessed acrimonious scenes over the action of the Bengaluru City Police against Congress workers, who are allegedly involved in the "Paycm" poster campaign targeting Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai and the BJP Government in the state.

Congress MLCs protested against the arrest of their party workers for pasting the posters and demanded their immediate release.

They also questioned the police for taking action only against Congress workers, when the BJP members too had put up social media posts with former CM Siddaramaiah and KPCC president DK Shivakumar's photographs.

Law Minister JC Madhuswamy hit out at the Opposition MLCs for trying to protect those involved in such a campaign against the CM. "How can we tolerate such acts? We have to act against them and the government will take action if there is a complaint about Congress leaders' posters too," the minister said, adding, "As it is, people do not respect politicians and we have been projected as villains." He requested the Congress not to protect those involved in the campaign against the CM.

Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai said they are ready for any debate on corruption, and the Congress members should allow the Question Hour to continue.

However, as the government justified the police action, Opposition members rushed to the well of the house holding placards and raised slogans. The ruling BJP members too resorted to raising slogans against the Congress, while holding placards.

For several minutes, the House was not in order, even as the Pro-tem Chairman tried to conduct the proceedings. The Bills that were earlier passed in the Assembly, were done so in the council amid the din. Angered by the Pro-tem Chairman's decision to pass the Bills in this way, some opposition members including Congress Chief Whip Prakash Rathod stood on their chairs, while a few others rushed towards the Pro-tem Chairman's chair. Members from the ruling and Opposition parties continued sloganeering, even after the council was adjourned.

After the House was reconvened, Opposition leader BK Hariprasad said the government should take criticism in the right spirit, instead of resorting to police action. "Two members of our party's social media team have been arrested. The police went to their houses at midnight and terrorised their families. But the police did not even question former minister KS Eshwarappa in the contractor's suicide case. Former minister BT Lalitha Nayak has received death threats nine times and the police could not trace the accused," he charged.

Madhuswamy said the arrests were made as a case was registered, to which Hariprasad quipped that the police were refusing to even take their complaint. As Madhuswamy requested Opposition members to cooperate since just a day was left for the session to end, the latter obliged.

SLUG FEST

The Assembly also witnessed heated exchanges between Congress and BJP members, after BJP MLA P Rajeev said if they had proof of corruption, they could have complained, but by using a photo of the Chief Minister, they have disrespected the state. Law Minister JC Madhuswamy said, "This is such an unfortunate incident. Mudslinging is not a good trend. Today, it is Basavaraj Bommai, tomorrow it could be someone else. Where are we heading, it hurts."

No proper provision to learn Kannada in higher education

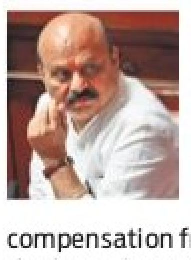
IT proposes use of Kannada in sub-ordinate courts, tribunals and banks, besides laying emphasis on the establishment of a mechanism (committees or enforcement officers) for implementation and supervision.

The Bill states that though Kannada has been introduced as one of the languages in schools, there is no proper provision for learning the language in higher education, including professional courses.

If there is failure on the part of government officials in using Kannada language in official and administrative transactions, it shall amount to dereliction of duty, the Bill says. Also, the owner or authority concerned of any industry- or commercial establishment fail to follow the rules, they will be imposed a fine of Rs 5,000 for first time offence, Rs 10,000 for second time and Rs 20,000 for the third time.

State's revenue collection has improved, says CM



Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai on Thursday claimed that the revenue collection in the state has improved, and the government is taking measures to improve it further. He presented a supplementary estimation of Rs 14,762.20 crore that was passed on Thursday. Speaking about GST, the Chief Minister said that they had expected receiving Rs 5,000 crore as GST compensation from the Union Government during the state budget, but the latter has given Rs 8,633 crore.

Bill to help inter-zonal transfer of teachers

The Assembly on Thursday passed the Karnataka State Civil Services (Regulation of Transfer of Teachers) Act, 2022, to help the mutual transfer, and transfers made under special categories of couples, where the wife and husband are in government service. It permits mutual transfer to a place outside the zones where they were originally recruited, subject to the condition that both teachers should have completed five years of service.

KSEEB, DPUE exam merger proposed

The Karnataka Secondary Education Examination Board (Amendment) Bill was passed in the Assembly on Thursday. It proposes the merger of the Karnataka Secondary Education Examination Board (KSEEB) and the Department of Pre-University Education (DPUE) examination system, with an IAS officer as its chairman. The same was approved by the cabinet recently. It also proposed the change of KSEEB as the Karnataka School Examination and Assessment Board in accordance with the National Education Policy.

COPS ACT AGAINST PFI, DETAIN 15 FOR QUESTIONING

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

IN a massive crackdown against the Popular Front of India (PFI), the Karnataka police on Thursday 'held' 15 PFI cadres from across the State under Sections 153A and 120B of the Indian Penal Code (IPC) for promoting enmity among religious communities and criminal conspiracy.

Earlier, City Police Commissioner CH Pratap Reddy said that based on certain credible inputs of the NIA and Central agencies, the city police registered a First Information Report (FIR) (328/22) against 19 PFI members at KG Halli police station in Bengaluru East, on Wednesday. "Based on the FIR, we identified 19 suspects and 15 were picked up for questioning," Reddy said in a media interaction.

On Thursday morning, police raided 18 premises of PFI members in Bengaluru and Mangaluru, and the districts of Dakshina Kannada, Shivamogga, Koppal, Davangere, Udupi, Mysuru and Kalaburagi. The State police operation against the PFI is being seen as part of the nationwide crackdown against PFI by the National Investigation Agency (NIA) and Directorate of Enforcement (ED) in Kerala, Andhra Pradesh, Tamil Nadu, Puducherry, Assam, Uttar Pradesh, Rajasthan, Maharashatra, Goa, West Bengal, Bihar and Manipur, during which 45 senior PFI cadres, including seven from Karnataka, were arrested in the five cases registered by the Central agency.

In Karnataka, the NIA, with support from State police, conducted searches in Bengaluru and Mangaluru. The PFI has come under intense scrutiny of law enforcement agencies after its alleged involvement in terror funding, terror activities, organising armed training camps and radicalising people to join banned organisations.

The NIA had nailed PFI for its alleged involvement in the murder cases of Praveen Nettaru, the BJP Yuva Morcha leader in Dakshina Kannada, on July 26, and Harsha, in Shivamogga, on February 20, "as part of a larger conspiracy to strike terror amongst members of a section of society".

In Shivamogga, regional level president of PFI Shahid Khan was picked up from his house near the fish market in Lashkar Mohalla, around 2am Thursday. According to unconfirmed sources, police have reportedly recovered Rs 20 lakh in cash.

In Dakshina Kannada, five PFI leaders -- Abdul Khader Puttur, Ashraf Jokatte, Tafsir, Nawaz Kavoor and Moideen Haleyangadi -- were taken into custody for questioning. In Udupi, members of the district PFI unit came on to the street near Old Diana Circle, and blocked the road to protest against the NIA raid on PFI offices.

In Davangere, two persons associated with PFI and Social Democratic Party of India (SDPI) were picked up from their houses at 4am, and their mobile phones, laptops, hard disks and bank documents were allegedly seized. The SDPI has demanded the release of all the arrested PFI leaders within 24 hours.

In Koppal, PFI district president Abdul Fayaz was picked up from his residence in Egda Colony in the wee hours of Thursday at Gangavathi, in the presence of Koppal SP Arunangshu Giri. In Sirsi, Aziz Abdul Shakoor Honnavar was picked up from Tipu Nagar.

PFI activists staged a sudden protest by blocking the Pune-Bengaluru NH-4 near Belagavi. PFI district president Naveed Katagi stated that false allegations were being made against them and their organisation.

Meanwhile, reacting to the raids and arrests of their top cadres, the PFI, in a press statement, said they "strongly protest the fascist regime's moves to use agencies to silence dissenting voices".

Put us behind bars too, Cong leaders challenge CM

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

HITTING out at the BJP government for picking up its social media cell workers at 2am Thursday, over the 'PayCM' poster campaign, Congess leaders declared they would put up posters too and court arrest.

"I will join my party workers in putting up PayCM posters about the 40% commission corruption of @BJP4Karnataka. Let @BJP4Karnataka govt arrest me also…For @BJP4Karnataka, exposing corruption is illegal but looting Karnataka is legal. How many people will the BJP send to prison for speaking the truth? Will they construct new jails in every village? People are strongly voicing their opinion now to teach BJP a lesson,'' Opposition leader Siddaramaiah tweeted.

KPCC president D K Shivakumar said all Congress MLAs will put up posters in government offices. "Why is CM Bommai so worried about the poster issue? Why has action been taken against those putting up the posters?'' he questioned.

He demanded that cases be filed against Congress leaders too, and claimed that those who have no connection with the posters are also being arrested.

QR code tiff

"BJP had also put a QR code on us. When I went for the hearing, certain sections of media had put up a photo of me behind bars. Can I file a complaint against them?'' he asked. He claimed that criticism is common in politics, and those in power must be able to take it in their stride.

Shivakumar claimed that contractors had informed Congress leaders about corruption, and that more than 8,000 people have joined the campaign. "This is the most corrupt government in the country and has made the state the corruption capital of the country. It is our duty to expose the corruption. The BJP has put up hundreds of such posters against us and no action has been taken against them, so why this selective police action against Congress persons?'' he said. "Did we make the 40% commission charge? Did we say Rs 2,500 crore should be given for the CM's post? It is your MLA Yatnal and MLC Vishwanath who raised the issues of corruption and mutt seers."

Rain damage pegged at ₹12,319 crore

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

PEGGING the loss due to recent floods caused by heavy rain across the state at Rs 12,319 crore, the Karnataka government will be coming up with a master plan and task force for the development of Bengaluru.

Revenue Minister R Ashoka replied in the council that the rain had also resulted in damage estimated at Rs 12,319 crore. "As many as 45,465 houses were damaged, of which 2,438 houses were completely damaged. Farmers lost crops on 10,06,441 hectares of land, including 8,91,187 hectares of agricultural land. Rain also damaged 27,648km of roads in the state," Ashoka said.

Meanwhile, CM Basavaraj Bommai said the government is preparing a masterplan and setting up a task force to address several issues, including the drainage problem in Bengaluru. "We have studied three reports, including one prepared by the Indian Institute of Science (IISc). We will keep in mind the present population of Bengaluru. A special grant will be provided in the next 3-4 budgets," Bommai said.

All is well, claims Gowda

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

SETTING aside much speculation about his health, former PM H D Deve Gowda spoke to the media on Thursday, and said "my heart is filled with love and confidence after I heard that JDS party members performed pujas and annadanam, offered prayers and took up vows for my good health.''

Gowda, 89, had not been seen in the party office for the past three or four months, and his grandson Nikhil Gowda's tears when he spoke about his grandfather, and the visits of top leaders -- Siddaramaiah, B S Yediyurappa, Basavaraj Bommai, B C Patil, R Ashoka and others -- had led to much speculation about Gowda's health. Gowda clarified that his health is good, and assured that he is actively involved in party activities. His media statement said, "Doctors have advised me to rest due to a bout of ill-health. Therefore, I was resting at home." Sources said Gowda, who was complaining of acute knee discomfort and pain, was getting treatment for his knees at his house, where special massages and medicinal applications are part of the the daily treatment. Gowda said he would be handling all political, parliamentary and party responsibilities from home, and told party workers not to meet him for a few days.

TOOK FIRST STEP TO BRING PANCHAMASALIS UNDER 2A AS CM, CLAIMS YEDIYURAPPA

BENGALURU: Just a day after being accused of preventing the Panchamasali community from achieving the '2A' category status by its pontiff, former CM and Lingayat strongman BS Yediyurappa indirectly hit back at Lingayat Panchamasali Peetha's Basava Jaya Mrutyunjaya Swami, defending himself as being the one who initiated to bring them under the said category. Raising the matter during the Zero Hour on Thursday, Yediyurappa claimed that when he was the Chief Minister, there was a big convention organised by members of the Panchamasali community at Palace Grounds in Bengaluru, demanding 2A reservation. "I was the one who initiated it and referred it to the Backward Classes Commission and sought a report. I even constituted a Veerashaiva Lingayat Authority for which I allocated Rs 500 crore," the former chief minister stated. Further, Yediyurappa said that he had allocated Rs 650 crore to establish Anubhava Mantapa at Basava Kalyana.

BYRATHI: GOVT ON MISSION TO CLEAR ALL ENCROACHMENTS IN STATE

MYSURU: Urban Development Minister Byrathi Basavaraj on Thursday reiterated that the state government will not give in to any pressure, as it goes about the task of clearing illegal encroachments in Karnataka. "The demolition drive against encroachment is not just confined to Bengaluru, but will be carried out in all corporations, and across the state," he said. Speaking to reporters here on Thursday, Basavaraj said the encroachment of feeder canals, tanks and rajakaluves had resulted in the worst-ever flooding in Bengaluru and other places. "The government will not discriminate against encroachers nor is it worried about who the developer or landlord is, as it is on a mission to clear encroachments. The drive against illegal encroachments in my constituency K R Puram will continue too," he added.

DURING a Question Hour discussion on rise in elephant attacks, Mudigere Assembly constituency BJP MLA MP Kumaraswamy urged the state government to kill elephant foetuses to control their population, which led to an embarrassing moment for the members of the Treasury benches.

"We don't want this menace. Shift elephants from my constituency to other places," he demanded. He claimed that recently, six people have died to elephant attacks in his constituency, and that properties, crops have been damaged.

"There are too many elephants which has become a nuisance. It looks like that the government and the court want elephants, but people do not want them. The government should take steps to kill elephant foetuses to control their population," he said.

Fear of elephants is such that farmers have stopped farming on thousands of acres of land, he said, adding, "Wherever I go in my constituency, people ask me when will this menace end."

Minister Shivaram Hebbar replied that elephant foetuses cannot be killed, and the government is against the proposal. "Compensation for crop loss and deaths have been hiked. We are using technology like radio collar on elephants to track them, and are also working on rail fencing," he said. However, he said that a particular elephant Mudigere Bhyra, which has become a menace, and a special team has been formed to catch him.

Narrating another episode of elephant woes, Hanur MLA from Chamarajanagar Narendra claimed that there are three rogue elephants in Chamarajanagar, which has become a problem. These elephants are straying into villages, triggering fear and damaging properties and crops. "Why we should suffer," he asked.

Speaker Vishveshwara Hegde Kageri said that many constituencies face man-animal conflicts. "Monkeys are caught somewhere, and left in Sirsi, my assembly constituency. Government should form an expert committee to find a permanent solution," he added.

CET row: Panel gives 2 proposals

Total deduction of six for 100 qualifying marks

A government panel submitted its report comprising two proposals to the Division Bench of Acting Chief Justice Alok Aradhe and Justice S Vishwajith Shetty of Karnataka High Court to determine the CET rankings for admission to UG engineering and technology courses.

The proposals are for Covid and post-Covid batch students.

Karnataka State Higher Education Council Vice-Chairman Dr B Thimme Gowda-headed panel's normalisation formula states the qualifying marks of 2021 PU batch students should be deducted by an average of six marks in Physics, five in Chemistry, and seven in Mathematics, resulting in a total deduction of six for 100 qualifying marks. Then using 50 per cent qualifying exam marks, and 50 per cent of CET marks, the Covid batch students' ranking might improve. This, in turn, might affect the post-Covid batch's rankings to some extent, and to protect their interest, the panel recommended that the seats in IT-related branches in colleges, as per previous years' preferred seats, may be raised by about 10 per cent.

After going through the report the court will pass orders on Friday.

During the pandemic, the second PU students of the 2021 batch passed without writing the exam, as per the government methodology. The government amended the rule, so that merit list for UGCET 2021 could be prepared on the basis of CET marks only.

The merit list for CET 2022 was determined by considering 50 per cent of qualifying marks and 50 per cent of marks in CET. But for 2021 batch PU students, with no qualifying exam, ranks were given based on CET 2022 marks. The repeaters moved HC, and requested that 50 per cent of their qualifying exam marks be considered for rankings.

GADKARI LAYS STONE FOR ₹3K-CR PROJECTS IN AP

Rajamahendravaram: Union Minister for Road Transport and Highways Nitin Gadkari laid the foundation stone for eight projects to be developed for Rs 3,000 crore in the erstwhile twin Godavari districts. Addressing a gathering on Thursday, he said construction of five flyovers and three NHs would be taken up. The NHs will come up between Vakalapudi-Uppada-Annavaram (40.621 km), Samalkot-Achampet junction (12.25 km), Rampachodavaram-Koyyur (70.12 km), while the flyovers will be constructed at Kaikaram (1.7 km), Morampudi (1.42 km), Undrajavaram (1.25 km), Tethali (1.03km) and Jonnada (0.93km).

Jagan 'no' to lifetime prez: Gen secy

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Vijayawada

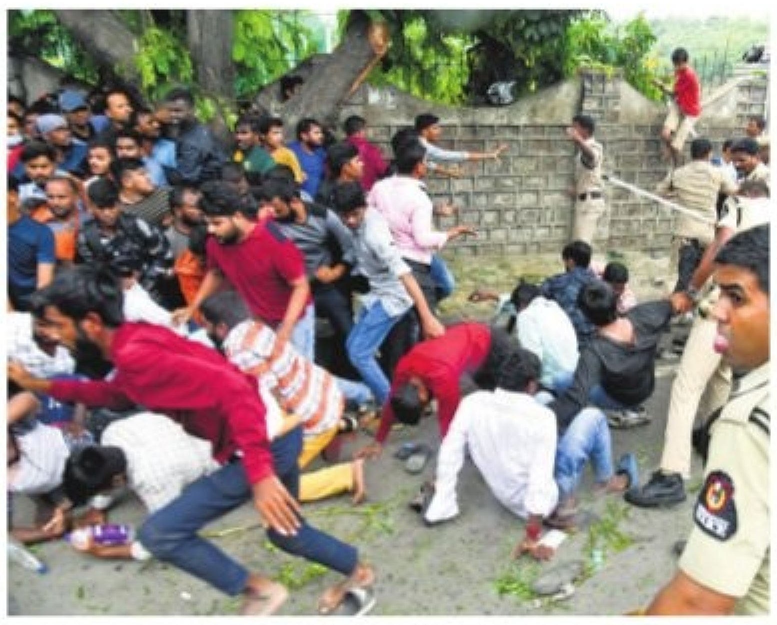
A day after the Election Commission of India (EC) asked the YSRC to clarify on the media reports that YS Jagan Mohan Reddy was appointed as the permanent president of the party, YSRC general secretary Sajjala Ramakrishna Reddy on Thursday maintained that Jagan Mohan Reddy has rejected the proposal of making him as the lifetime president.

"We made a proposal and resolution passed (to make Jagan Mohan Reddy as permanent president) but he has rejected it,'' he claimed and said the CM wanted the democratic process to run as it is.

Jagan had, in fact, asked us why we have made such a proposal, he said. "Now that it did not materialise, the party president will have a tenure of five years as per the amendment made to the party's Constitution in February,'' he said. "It had a natural death and it is now irrelevant too,'' he said.

Asked about the passage of the resolution in the party plenary and party leader V Vijayasai Reddy announcing the same before the public, Reddy said though it was adopted, Jagan was against it. "It was our wish that there should not be elections to elect the one who had founded the party,'' he said.

He also said they have mulled the proposal after speaking to legal experts who said such a system is in vogue in Tamil Nadu.



At least 27 people, including several police personnel, sustained injuries during a stampede at the Gymkhana Grounds in Hyderabad on Thursday after thousands of cricket fans, who had converged to buy tickets for the India-Australia T20 match on September 25 at the Uppal Stadium, grew restless after waiting patiently. Only two ticket counters were opened, and technical glitches prevented cashless payments. Those waiting for tickets said that they could not understand why the Hyderabad Cricket Association stopped accepting digital payments suddenly, and insisted on cash payment only | VINAY MADAPU

Sukanya Samriddhi to get Postal dept push

S LALITHA @ Bengaluru

IN a effort to popularise the Sukanya Samriddhi Account (SSA), a massive campaign will be undertaken across five cities in Karnataka by the Postal Department.

Speaking to TNIE, Chief Postmaster General (CPMG), Karnataka Circle, S Rajendra Kumar, said Sukanya Samriddhi Mahotsav will be held in Peenya Dasarahalli on September 24, Dharwad (September 28), Channarayapatna (October 7) and Koppal (October 10).

"The objective is to cover every girl child below the age of 10 in the state. Accounts can be opened by the parents in the name of the child in post office or in a bank. While the minimum deposit amount is Rs 250, maximum is Rs 1.5 lakh for an interest rate of 7.6 per cent pa for 15 years," he said.

The postal Department has already covered 80 schools and anganwadis, and 50 more schools will be covered. "So far, 680 Sukanya Samriddhi Accounts have been opened. We are targeting 3,000 by this campaign's end,"Kumar said. Accounts can be opened only for two girls in a family, he said. "The account will be operated by the guardian till the girl reaches 18 years of age," he said.

'Stonewalls a stupid idea'

THIS year, walls have been built in Karwar, Udupi and Mangaluru. Between 2011 and 2022, the PAI has spent Rs271.78 crore on the project.

A senior official from the Ministry of Environment, Forests and Climate Change in Kerala said: "Construction of stonewalls is not the solution. It is a 'stupid' idea. The hydro-static pressure of waves is shifting to other sides aggressively, leading to an increase in sea erosion. Salinity and heat on the sea shores is changing and aqua life is endangered due to human interference. Fishermen have also started raising objections," he said.

M D Subhash Chandran, a noted fisheries and coast expert, said that instead of ensuring coastal regulation zones and buffer zones are maintained, the government is succumbing to pressure from public and tourism industry, and allowing constructions in no-development zones. "There has been no loss of life, but properties damaged. Instead of ensuring flow of sediments from rivers into sea, the government is opting for stonewall construction," MoEF official said. VN Nayak, a coast and marine expert, said maintaining estuaries, mangroves and aqua plants like Pandana, are a cheap and viable solution.

Biker falls into deep pit dug up for road work

Residents stand near the pit into which the biker fell on Wednesday. The bike is yet to be lifted out of the pit | D Hemanth

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Hubballi

A biker fell into a pit of about 6-8ft deep dug up by Hubballi-Dharwad Municipal Corporation (HDMC) opposite St Mary's School near Hotel Ananth Executive, Keshwapur, Hubballi on Wednesday night for taking up a road work. He has sustained injuries to his head, and returned home after treatment. The pit has been left open for the last few days. Residents heard him shouting for help, and shifted him to KIMS hospital. The injured person has not been identified. "The pit is near a school. The authorities concerned should fix the problem," said Gangadhar, who rescued the trider. Another person said there was no barricade or sign near the pit. Hubballi Dharwad East Traffic police said they have placed barricades. No case has been registered.

KERALA RECEPTIVE TO RAHUL BUT HE HAS QUESTIONS TO ANSWER

Rahul Gandhi's Bharat Jodo Yatra is in the second half of its 19-day leg in Kerala. Rahul, on his way, is meeting all prominent community leaders and is getting a warm reception wherever he goes. Crowds are teeming to see the Gandhi scion. Some want to hug him, some want to take selfies with him, and some even want to touch his dimples. While Rahul was sweating it out in the sultry weather in Kerala, someone else was hogging the limelight equally or even more. That was Shashi Tharoor, the MP from Thiruvananthapuram, who has declared his intention to contest for the post of Congress president. The national media was keener on Tharoor than the Congress 'heir apparent'.

With these two high-profile MPs from Kerala hitting the ground, photo opportunities were plentiful. But, what this means to the Congress party's political fortunes is worth pondering. Kerala, indeed, is one state where the Congress is not a thing of the past.

Though there is much to be aspired for, the Kerala unit is one of the strongest in the country with an array of young leaders. That Rahul decided to spend 19 days in a state which had elected the maximum number of UPA MPs in the last Lok Sabha election was not by chance. The Congress knows well that Kerala, which had given refuge to Rahul in 2019, is still its safest bet. Kerala is also one of the few states where the Gandhi surname still evokes certain nostalgia. The state unit hopes to use Rahul's charisma to the hilt to cover up the party's organisational lethargy.

What the Congress forgets in the process is a crucial fact—that times have changed and that many young voters have no memory of Rahul's ancestors. Suppose the party is serious about stopping the BJP juggernaut. In that case, mere photo opportunities or an over-dependence on media will not be good enough if the past election results are anything to go by. If the Congress party does not make conscious efforts to address its organisational and political lethargy, all the sweat and pain of the Bharat Jodo yatris will be futile. Without decisive leadership and a robust organisation, these photo opportunities and symbolic gestures will remain what they are.

DEMOLITION DRIVE AVOIDS HIGH-END VILLAS

There is a perceptible change in the Karnataka government's stand on the demolition of encroachments on lakebeds, culverts and wetlands in Bengaluru. After the embarrassment of floods along the IT corridor a fortnight ago, the government had stridently declared that all offending properties would be demolished, but quite suddenly, is singing a different tune. It is now looking to conduct a 'resurvey' of the affected region before it razes any encroachments. Not surprisingly, since the area is home to the who's who of the corporate and startup world. The compulsions are clear: With civic and assembly elections coming up, the government cannot afford to ruffle important feathers; it also needs to shield the builder-politician nexus which is primarily responsible for the wetlands turning into a concrete jungle, and the role played by civic agencies in this ecological disaster.

The Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP), which put up a show of setting right (its own) planning errors, rolled in bulldozers and drew up a hitlist of big builders who had erred, and even demolished parts of a few properties. But not for long. The demolition drive became entangled in political mudslinging, and a blame game between the government and opposition.

Meanwhile, some big builders approached the high court for a stay, giving the government a legitimate reason to stop all action. In the melee, the Palike demolition squad turned its bulldozers towards properties of ordinary citizens, conveniently avoiding high-end villas and apartments. Revenue Minister R Ashoka has listed 630 encroachments across the city to be removed, and promised there will be no discrimination between the poor, middle class, and rich, but his statement needs to be taken with a pinch of salt. There is also no word on how culpable officers and engineers will be made accountable.

By diluting its stand, the government is only doing Bengaluru a great disservice. Instead of resolving to find solutions before the next monsoon, taking the city's historical map as a guide to remove encroachments and drawing up a comprehensive plan for the future, it is looking to cover up previous wrongs. The Council, too, has mooted finding scientific solutions instead of large-scale razing of expensive homes. While the middle path appears desirable to all stakeholders, it is not the time for ad hoc solutions. The authorities should undo the damage and hold up Bengaluru as a model for other cities with similar issues.

QUICK TAKE

PRIVATISING PROCUREMENT

The Centre will rope the private sector to buy food grain for the central buffer stock from the following season. It expects greater efficiency and reduced procurement costs. FCI and state agencies will procure alongside, as before. Farmers may expect ease of doing business, but FCI could face an existential crisis. What happens to its massive procurement and storage capacities? The government could have tried making it accountable instead of letting it become a storage house for privately procured stock. Also, private agencies could disrupt arthiyas' business by operating outside of mandis in the north. And that has political implications.

Bangladesh has highlighted its burgeoning trade deficit with India. It is an area of discord between the two

LET BANGLADESH PRESENCE GROW IN INDIAN MARKET

BISWAJIT DHAR

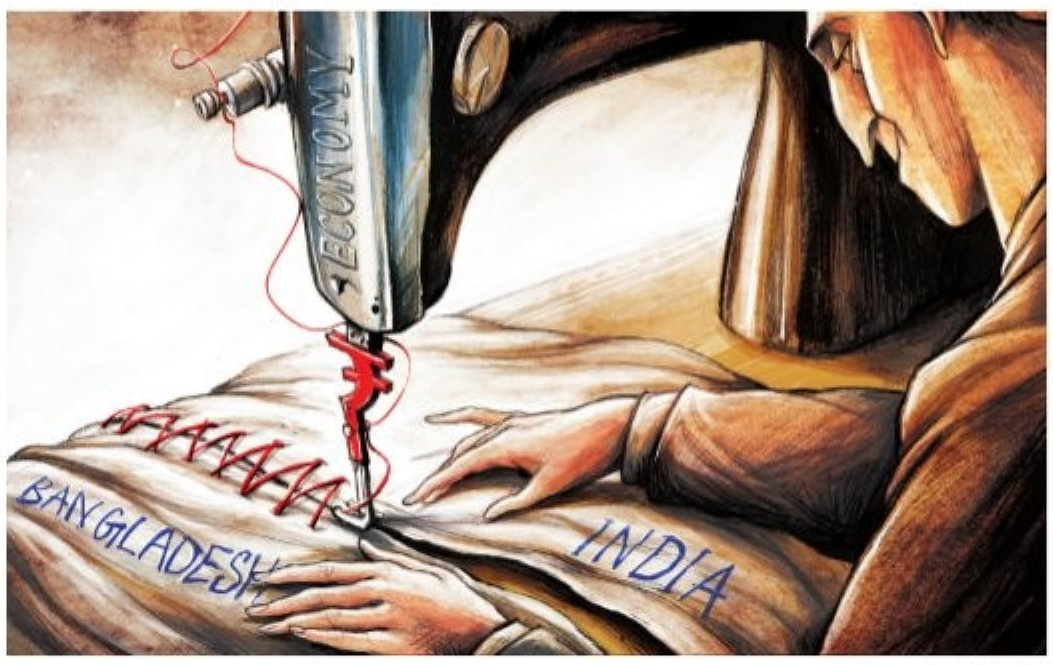
Professor, Centre for Economic Studies and Planning, School of Social Sciences, JNU

Bangladesh Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina's recent visit to India, and her discussions with Prime Minister Narendra Modi and other leaders, was yet another occasion for the two neighbours to revisit their traditionally close relations and set new markers for enhancing them. The Joint Statement issued at the end of Sheikh Hasina's visit identified several critical areas of cooperation. Over the past several years, India provided support for infrastructural projects in Bangladesh, particularly in the energy sector, and the two leaders emphasised the need for expeditious implementation. The Modi-Hasina talks also underlined the importance of implementing bilateral and sub-regional rail connectivity projects as well as riverine projects that would ensure better economic integration between the two countries. But perhaps the most important decision taken by the two leaders was to deepen trade and economic cooperation by putting in place a Comprehensive Economic Partnership Agreement (CEPA), the negotiations for which would begin before the end of 2022.

There are several reasons why India must ensure that the CEPA must be concluded expeditiously. The first is that as a least developed country (LDC), Bangladesh is currently benefiting from India's 'Duty Free Tariff Preference' (DFTP) Scheme, which was introduced in 2008. Following the decision adopted at the Sixth Ministerial Conference of the World Trade Organization that "developed-country Members, and developing-country Members declaring themselves in a position to do so" would "provide duty-free and quota-free market access on a lasting basis for all products originating from all LDCs by 2008", India became the first developing country to extend this facility to the LDCs. At present, the DFTP Scheme extends duty-free access to 98.2% of India's total tariff lines (products).

All this could change for Bangladesh in November 2026 as it would complete its graduation from an LDC. This implies that Bangladesh will cease to be a beneficiary of the DFTP scheme in just over four years. Therefore, India needs to act promptly to seal a bilateral CEPA through which the benefits that Bangladesh currently enjoys can not only be continued, but India could also top up the benefits by giving market access in the services sector as well.

A second and important reason for which India needs to act promptly is because of Bangladesh's ambition to enter into negotiations with the members of the Regional Comprehensive Economic Partnership (RCEP). An inter-ministerial meeting held in July 2022 agreed that the "country will join the RCEP … if an opportunity is created after negotiations". Bangladesh is clearly seeking to partner with RCEP member states to expand its footprint in East Asia, something that it has not been able to do in India.



SOUMYADIP SINHA

India's imports from Bangladesh have been abysmally low, expanding from just over $1 billion in 2018–19 to below $2 billion in 2021–22. In contrast, India's exports to Bangladesh have always been high and since 2018–19, they have expanded from $9 billion to over $16 billion in 2021–22. Bangladesh has consistently highlighted its burgeoning trade deficit with India, and this has remained one of the major areas of discord between the two countries. Bangladesh has explained its lack of market access in India by arguing that India has been imposing restrictions on its imports using non-tariff barriers (NTB). In other words, the NTB are effectively nullifying the advantages which India is offering through its DFTP scheme.

Although this charge has not been conclusively established, the point remains that India has not been importing enough readymade garments (RMG), which overwhelmingly dominates Bangladesh's export basket. Bangladesh's Export Promotion Bureau reports that in the previous financial year, from July to June 2021–22, the share of RMG exports was 85.6% of the country's total exports. However, in India's imports from its neighbour, the share of the RMG sector was just 35%. Therefore, a case can be made that India needs to redraw its import strategy and ensure that it is better attuned to Bangladesh's perceived area of export strength.

At the same time, there is no gainsaying that the lack of diversification of Bangladesh's manufacturing sector is an important factor limiting its overall exports, and those to India, in particular. The country, therefore, needs to focus on identifying sectors which its manufacturing activities can diversify, and India can be a useful partner in this regard. Governments and businesses in the two countries need to quickly identify the sectors in which the two countries can usefully collaborate.

One important advantage that India and Bangladesh have for furthering their trade relations is harnessing the potential of border trade between the two countries. India and Bangladesh have a major advantage in this regard, for they have 38 active border trade points, 32 of which are in the Northeast (Assam, Meghalaya, and Tripura) while six are in West Bengal.

The Central government, through the Ministry of Development of North Eastern Region (DoNER), has had a long-standing plan of converting a majority of these trade points that have traditionally been land customs stations (LCS) with minimal infrastructure into integrated check posts (ICP) that have the necessary facilities for conducting seamless trade and to, therefore, reduce the cost of doing business. However, progress toward converting the LCS into ICP has not been quite encouraging. Thus far, only four ICP are fully functional, while seven others are at various stages of implementation.

Besides enabling trade to expand rapidly, conversion of the LCS into ICP could have one major advantage, which is to formalise the large volumes of informal trade that takes place across the border. A well-established fact is that the actual trade between the two countries is much larger than the official statistics reveal since much of the trade taking place through the LCS is not properly documented. There should be much better opportunities for Bangladesh to expand its presence in the Indian market if the two countries focus on expeditiously creating/strengthening their trade-related infrastructure.

GENESIS OF DYNASTIC POLITICS IN INDIA AND ITS ANTIDOTE

SANDIP GHOSE

Current affairs commentator

Dynasties in Indian politics are a subject that commentators return to. But the analyses tend to focus more on the symptoms than the causes. Positions often change depending on the political inclination of the analyst. Narendra Modi has been vocal against "Parivarvad" (dynastic rule), especially in the Congress, since he entered the fray for prime ministership. But people earlier critical of political dynasties have begun to find virtue in them, drawing flawed equivalence with minor dynasties within the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP). Modi, they feel, is breeding a sycophantic culture in the BJP similar to what was considered the bane of dynastic parties.

Some political science experts are more forgiving towards dynasties than personality cults which they believe can be a greater threat to democracy. Though their fears of incipient fascism and dictatorship are highly exaggerated and alarmist, there is a prevailing sense of cynicism about the possibility of eliminating dynasties and personality cults from Indian politics.

As long as the euphoria of the freedom struggle and surge of nationalistic fervour lasted, political dynasties did not show their head. Only in the seventies did the early signs of dynastic rule appear in national and regional politics. The succession of Nehru by Indira Gandhi was not a done deal, to begin with. Even after becoming the prime minister, her position was far from secure within her party. This manifested in the form of the challenge she faced from the "syndicate" led by K Kamaraj, which led to the split of the Congress. Only after she consolidated her position in Congress (I) she laid the seeds of dynastic succession. The same period also saw the rise of regional parties. With a little stretch, it can be said that M Karunanidhi, taking over as chief minister after the death of Annadurai, laid the early imprint of the personality cult in South Indian politics that has lasted for over five decades. This variously manifested as identity politics and dynastic culture in different parts of the country, with the Gandhi family as its fountainhead in Delhi.

It may be instructive to look at developments in our neighbourhood around the same time. With the Cold War at its peak, the two global powers actively began cultivating relationships in South Asia. Doing so made it convenient to place their bets on single families, if only for continuity. It may not be just a coincidence that one saw the rise of political dynasties in our neighbourhood—namely, Bhuttos in Pakistan, Sheikh Mujibur and Sheikh Hasina in Bangladesh, and Bandaranaike and Kumaratunga in Sri Lanka. Though Nepal was a monarchy, the rise of the Koirala family was a sub-stream of the same trend. However, it would be disingenuous to suggest that South Asian political dynasties thrived under foreign patronage. It was perhaps the flavour of the season and a homegrown phenomenon in all these countries.

Modi and the BJP have identified an opportunity here. After an extended campaign for a "Congress-mukt Bharat", they have now launched a broadside against other dynastic parties

Though it is hard to find empirical data on graft, anecdotally, there was a sharp rise in corruption by political families around the same time. This probably came with the realisation among this new generation of populist leaders that political capital alone was not enough to retain power. They needed financial security too. So acquiring wealth was a way of buying political insurance and raising the entry barrier for potential challengers. Following the Emergency and the implosion of the Janata Party, there was a phase of atomisation in Indian politics. Satraps who emerged from the churn were quick to learn the dynastic formula of the Gandhis. They built family war chests in tandem with regional empires. So, by the end of the eighties, new dynasties were born of Yadavs (Mulayam, Lalu), Pawar, Badal, Lal, Patnaik, Soren, Naidu, Mayawati, Thackeray, Reddy- and, now, Banerjee.

Only the two Communist Parties—CPI(M) and CPI—and the Bharatiya Janata Party remained immune to this trend by virtue of their DNA. But not quite so. Without realising it, the CPI(M) fell into the personality and identity trap. Much of the credit for its three decades of rule in West Bengal must go to Jyoti Basu. Under him, the CPI(M) in Bengal was more of a Bengali Party than a Communist Party. The same may be said of the CPI(M) in Kerala today under Pinarayi Vijayan.

The BJP realised that the groundswell after the Ram Janmabhoomi movement could only be harnessed by a towering leader like Atal Bihari Vajpayee. Once he retired from active politics, the BJP floundered. Its fortunes could only be revived by another charismatic figure in the form of Narendra Modi. So by default, the BJP too has been promoting a personal cult of its own.

But does this matter to the ordinary public? The bigger question, perhaps, is whether people have an option. Elections have become so expensive that they are beyond any ordinary citizen's reach unless they have powerful patrons or the backing of a large party. Lok Sabha polls reportedly cost anywhere between ₹20 to ₹30 crore per candidate. As per officially declared numbers, expenses of major parties run into hundreds of crores, even for assembly elections. Even a lateral entrant like Arvind Kejriwal has to play the identity card that may soon turn into another dynastic line. It is for the same reasons—namely control over the brand name and treasury—that makes the Gandhis irreplaceable in the Congress.

Modi and the BJP have identified an opportunity here. After an extended campaign for a "Congress-mukt Bharat", they have now launched a broadside against other dynastic parties. The BJP hopes that younger leaders stifled by "Parivarvad" in family-owned parties may move to its fold, looking for an even playing field.

At the national level, only the Congress can counter it. But for that, it will have to radically reinvent itself, restoring meritocracy—where it provides a big tent to women and men of calibre, in which the dynasty can at best be the first among equals. Sham inner-party democracy will not work.

What is Thakur preaching?

Apropos of Thakur to TV channels: Work professionally, don't try to grab eyeballs (Sept 22). It is bizarre that the Union Minister for Information & Broadcasting is preaching in total contradiction of what he and his party preach; what about the takeover of NDTV by the Adani group? With politics controlling media, the fourth pillar is no longer the voice of the common man.

Making of Rahul

Apropos of The Congress Rahul walks away from (Sept 21). I've always felt that there was something fundamentally decent about Rahul Gandhi—and the columnist has captured it very well. Perhaps this padayatra may be the making of him; not sure, because that very decency may be the handicap.

Who is Cong fooling?

This is with reference to Row over party resolutions choosing Rahul as Cong prez (Sept 22). The AICC president election is nothing but a sham. The dynasty and sycophants will see to it that either someone from the dynasty or a staunch loyalist who dances to the tunes of the dynasty whisks away the throne. Democracy and transparency are anathema to the Congress; the elections are just to misguide the public. But we understand this drama.

Forego drama, solve problems

This is with reference to Did Nehru invite RSS to R-day? No proof, many claims (Sept 21). At a time when there are so many crucial problems to be tackled, those in top positions are focusing on this. Although history is important, the present holds just as much value and must be given pride of place. Let us focus on current lacunae, shall we?

Rest in peace, Raju

This is with reference to The man who taught us how to laugh at ourselves (Sept 22). The sudden death of Raju Srivastava has saddened the hearts of people who loved him so much. His comedies were not mere comedies. Through his work, he taught us many life lessons. Raju is truly an irreplaceable masterpiece!

Narzari P, Thiruvananthapuram

Raju lives on in our hearts

The untimely death of Raju Srivastava has cast a dark cloud over the Indian comedy industry. His humour was rooted in Indian tradition and his jokes connected with the masses and all age groups. It is shocking that a man who made millions smile has now passed away.

End of Ukraine war need of hour, India tells UNSC

Both sides must return to route of diplomacy, says Jaishankar

YESHI SELI @New Delhi

> Let me emphasise that the need of the hour is to end this conflict in Ukraine and return to the negotiating table. This Council is the most powerful contemporary symbol of diplomacy. It must continue to live up to its purpose.
>
> S Jaishankar, EAM

INDIA on Thursday told the UN Security Council that the need of the hour is to end the conflict in Ukraine and return to dialogue and said tthat he nuclear issue is a particular anxiety, underlining Prime Minister Narendra Modi's assertion to Russian President Vladimir Putin that this cannot be an era of war.

"Let me emphasise that the need of the hour is to end this conflict in Ukraine and return to the negotiating table. This Council is the most powerful contemporary symbol of diplomacy. It must continue to live up to its purpose. The global order that we all subscribe to, is based on international law, UN Charter and respect for the territorial integrity and sovereignty of all States. These principles too must be upheld, without exception,'' Affairs Minister S Jaishankar said at a UNSC meeting on Ukraine that was hosted by France in New York.

Talking about ending the conflict, Mexico's Foreign Minister, Marcelo Ebrard pointed towards a proposal by Mexican President to establish a committee which would include Prime Minister Narendra Modi and the Pope to resolve the Russian Ukraine conflict.

Talking about the challenges that have emerged for people living across the globe, Jaishankar expressed concern over the nuclear threat.

"The nuclear issue is a particular anxiety. In a globalised world, the impact of the conflict is being felt even in distant regions. We have all experienced its consequences in terms of surging costs and actual shortages of foodgrains, fertilizers and fuel. We must therefore not initiate measures that further complicate the struggling global economy and that is why India strongly reiterates the need for an immediate cessation of all hostilities and a return to dialogue and diplomacy,'' he added.

Besides Jaishankar, the UNSC briefing was also addressed by UN Secretary-General Antonio Guterres, US Secretary of State Antony Blinken, Chinese Foreign Minister Wang Yi, Russian Foreign Minister Sergey Lavrov and UK Secretary of State for Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Affairs James Cleverly and Foreign Ministers of other UNSC members.

Meanwhile, Jaishankar slammed China for not sanctioning some of the worlds most dreaded terrorists.

Jaishankar also reiterated that even in conflict situations, there can be no justification for violation of human rights or of international law. Where any such acts occur, it is imperative that they are investigated in an objective and independent manner. "The fight against impunity is critical to the larger pursuit of securing peace and justice. The Security Council must send an unambiguous and unequivocal message on this count. Politics should never ever provide cover to evade accountability," he said.

POLL PANEL PROPOSALS

Changes in the Representation of People Act, 1951, and Rule 89 of the Conduct of Election Rules, 1961

KEY PROPOSALS

- Bring down anonymous political donations from ₹20,000 to ₹2,000.
- Cap cash donations at 20 per cent or maximum of ₹20 crore on total annual receipts.

- Contesting candidates must pay for expenses above ₹2000 per entity/person compulsorily through digital transactions or account payee cheque transfers.
- Ensure that no foreign donations creep into party funds as stipulated under the RP Act and the Foreign Contribution Regulation Act (FCRA), 2010.

WHAT IS ELECTION COMMISSION?

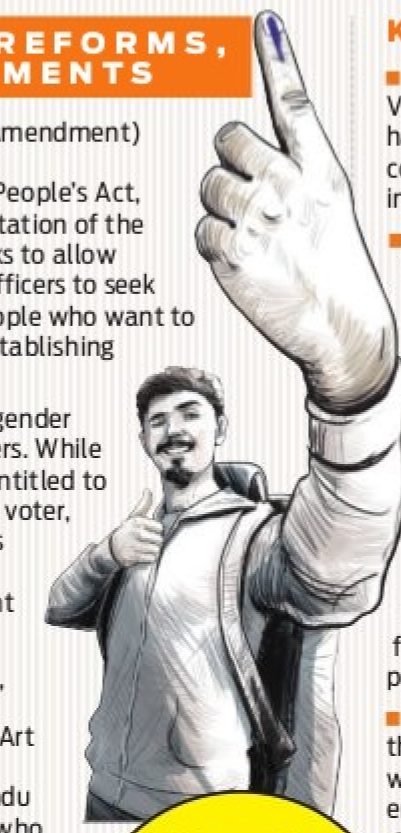
Established in 1950 as a permanent, independent and constitutional body to conduct elections under Article 324 of the Constitution; Initially, had only a Chief Election Commissioner; On October 1, 1993, two additional Election Commissioners appointed

LAWS GOVERNING EC

Article 324(5) incorporated to ensure independence; Article 324(5) specifies any other Election Commissioner or a Regional Commissioner shall not be removed from office except on the 'recommendation of the CEC'

MAJOR EC REFORMS, ANNOUNCEMENTS

- The Election Laws (Amendment) Bill, 2021 amended the Representation of the People's Act, 1950 and the Representation of the People's Act, 1951; Seeks to allow electoral registration officers to seek Aadhaar number of people who want to register as voters for establishing identity
- Electoral law made 'gender neutral' for service voters. While an Armyman's wife is entitled to be enrolled as a service voter, a woman Army officer's husband is not. A subsequent amendment replaced 'wife' with 'spouse', making the statute 'gender neutral'
- After nullification of Art 370, West Pakistani Refugees, including Hindu and Sikh communities who had migrated from erstwhile West Punjab (now Pakistan) after Partition in 1947, and Valmiki community, have been included to vote for the first time. As per official data, 5,764 families have settled down in various parts of Jammu



EC recently delisted 284 defaulting and non-compliant registered unrecognised political parties (RUPPs).

KEY SUPREME COURT DECISIONS ON EC

- In Chief Election Commissioner of India vs MR Vijayabhaskar (May 6, 2021) SC had observed that EC has a track record of being an independent constitutional body which shoulders a significant burden in ensuring the sanctity of electoral democracy
- In State of Goa & Anr v Fouziya Imtiaz Shaikh & Anr (March 12, 2021)- SC observed that a government officer serving a state government or the Central Government cannot be appointed as the State Election Commissioner. The Court passed this significant direction to ensure the independence of the State Election Commission.
- In Mohinder Singh Gill vs Chief Election Commissioner (1978)- SC had observed that EC has facilitated the operation of our constitutional democracy by conducting free and fair elections and regulating conduct around them for over seven decades. Its independence and integrity are essential for democracy to thrive. This responsibility covers powers, duties and myriad functions.
- In Ram Deo Bhandari vs Election Commission (1995) the Supreme Court held that the Election Commission was free to take such steps as it considered necessary to ensure a free and fair poll, but it would not withhold the elections to the Legislative Assembly of a State on the ground that the said Government had failed to complete the process of issuance of photo identity cards by the deadline prescribed by the Commission
- In TN Seshan vs Union of India (1995) the Supreme Court observed that Chief Election Commissioner did not enjoy a status superior to other Election Commissioners even though there were differences between the service conditions of the CEO and other CEs.

CONTROVERSIES

- Uproar over The Election Laws (Amendment) Bill 2021 after it was passed in Parliament, with oppisition saying the Bill may violate secrecy of the vote undermining the principle of secret ballot and fundamental right to privacy of the voter
- Following Opposition stir over EC's claim Aadhaar-voter ID linking is voluntary, poll panel says 'no entry in electoral roll shall be deleted on the ground of non-submission of Aadhaar'
- West Pakistani Refugees to vote in J&K assembly elections

Manipur: 'Floating' pics exhibit achievements of Modi govt's 8 years

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

A unique 'floating photo exhibition' on achievements of the Narendra Modi Government in the eight years began on Wednesday in Imphal. The exhibition is organised by the ministry of information and broadcasting. First of its kind, a three-day show in the country, a floating platform built, especially for the purpose, has been placed on the Loktak Lake. Around 88 creatives in Manipuri on 'Eight years of Seva, Sushasan, Garib Kalyan' and creatives about 11 unsung freedom fighters from Manipur are on display.

The Minister of State for Education Rajkumar Ranjan Singh, who represents the inner Manipur Lok Sabha constituency, inaugurated the exhibition. "This is the first-time that such an arrangement has been attempted by the Central Bureau of Communication (CBC), a wing of the ministry, in its history of over 50 years," said the ministry. On the occasion, cultural programmes were also organised. The members of fishing communities around the lake also performed on a floating stage.

Unsung heroes

88 creatives in Manipuri on 'Eight years of Seva, Sushasan, Garib Kalyan' and creatives about 11 freedom fighters are on display

Speaking at the inauguration ceremony, the minister said this kind of exhibition will inspire people and also help highlight various achievements of the government under the leadership of PM Modi.

"India is producing two Covid vaccines within nine months was one of the significant achievements of the country under the leadership of the Prime Minister. India is the country having the highest number of people vaccinated against COVID-19. The country is also supplying the vaccines free of cost to the neighbouring countries," said the minister. He said that the history of the freedom struggle will not be complete without recording contributions of the unsung heroes.

Hijab ban: Hearing over, SC verdict likely by October 14

SHRUTI KAKKAR @New Delhi

AFTER an extensive hearing of 10 days, the Supreme Court bench of Justices Hemant Gupta and Sudhanshu Dhulia on Thursday reserved verdict in pleas challenging Karnataka HC's ruling of upholding ban of hijab in educational institutions. Justice Gupta is to retire on October 16 and thus it is likley that the bench may announce the verdict by October 14.

Referring to a part of the circular which said that that certain religious observances were causing problems in the campus and interfering with unity, senior advocate Dushyant Dave in his rejoinder submissions told the bench that the circular dated February 5, 2022 had no reference to the Popular Front of India.

He said that he "regrets" that allegation made by the state that the controversy was provoked by a social media movement started by the PFI was without any pleading and wasn't mentioned in the HC. Relying on the guidelines issued by the Department of Education in 2021-22, Dave said that the guidelines said that uniform was not compulsory. He also added that wearing of hijab in Islam for some people who were believers was essential and for those who were not believers was not essential.

Supporting Dave's contention on the aspect of involvement of PFI in fuming the controversy, senior advocate Huzefa Ahmadi contended that the Government Order which restrained students to wear customary Islamic headscarf was illegal and sought to target a particular community.

"I can understand if the circular says no religious symbol is allowed. The circular speaks only of the head scarf. Even though it purports to be neutral it targets a particular community. Circular's purport has to be read as a whole. It is strange that the State, which should be concerned about educating girls, is concerned more about discipline and is enforcing this which can lead to denying education to girls," Ahmadi argued.

Stressing on the intent behind the development of "essential religious practice test", senior advocate Salman Khurshid for the students argued that the test was developed to balance the rights, to remove things which have grown on religion, so that religion does not suffer.

Red Cross needs to keep pace with changing times, says Mandaviya

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@New Delhi

INDIAN Red Cross Society (IRCS) needs to move with time to refine and redefine itself to reach the widest population through innovative and collaborative ventures, said Union Health Minister Dr Mansukh Mandaviya on Thursday.

Emphasising on chalking out a work plan to redefine itself, he said that IRCS needs to do this to "keep pace with the changing times."

"If the IRCS does not keep pace with the changing times, its relevance and identity may be lost. The IRCS needs to introspect on its strengths and weakness, and chart an action plan on how it redefines itself to embrace the changing role with time," he said. He was speaking at the inauguration of the states and union territories leadership meeting of the Society.

The purpose of the meeting is to discuss ways and means to improve the functioning of the IRCS, a health ministry statement said. He suggested various ways IRCS can retain its credit. "This may need deep diving into structural and organisational structures, attention of discipline in working of IRCS regional centres, transparency in appointments, better grievance redressal mechanisms, better utilisation of digital technology for people-centred activities, among other things."

Highlighting the motto of the society, he said, 'sews' and 'saying' are part of its legacy, and it form an integral part of its 'sanskar'.

"These also underline and define the motto of the Indian Red Cross Society, which is known for its work to help and aid humanity in times of need and emergencies," said Mandaviya, who is also the chairman of the IRCS.

The minister invited suggestions from the participants on taking up unique ventures and expanding the ambit of operations of the IRCS.

2 Diving Support Vessels for Navy launched in Vizag

MAYANK SINGH @New Delhi

AIMED at adding niche deep sea capabilities to the Indian Navy, two Diving Support Vessels being built by Hindustan Shipyard Ltd (HSL), Visakhapatnam, were launched on Thursday.

Upbeat about the launch, the Indian Navy in a statement said, "The Diving Support Vessels (DSVs) are first of the kind ships indigenously designed and built at HSL for the Indian Navy. The vessels are 118.4 metres long, 22.8 metres at the broadest point and will have a displacement of 9,350 tons."

As per the maritime tradition, the vessels were launched by Kala Hari Kumar, President Navy Welfare and Wellness Association (NWWA), who performed the traditional honour and naming them. Admiral R Hari Kumar, Chief of the Naval Staff, was the Chief Guest at the launching ceremony.

Speaking on the occasion, Admiral Kumar said, "It is a matter of great pride and satisfaction that approximately 80% of the DSV project's equipment are indigenously sourced from more than 120 MSMEs across India. The launch of these sophisticated and first of its kind platforms also cements India's status in an elite group of nations having the capability to design and build niche platforms. This is another step towards the Navy becoming 100% AatmaNirbhar by 2047 — an aim we have set for ourselves."

Once commissioned, these indigenous Diving Support Vessels or DSVs will serve as Indian Naval Ships Nipun and Nistar.

As per the Navy, "These ships would be deployed for deep sea diving operations. Additionally, with the Deep Submergence Rescue Vehicle (DSRV) embarked, the DSVs are designed to undertake submarine rescue operations, in case a requirement exists. Furthermore, these ships will be capable of sustained patrolling, conducting Search & Rescue operations and carrying out Helicopter Operations at high seas."

DEFENCE MINISTRY SIGNS DEAL TO BUY 35 BRAHMOS MISSILES FOR NAVY

NEW DELHI: The Ministry of Defence (MOD) signed a contract on Thursday to acquire 35 combat and three practice BrahMos supersonic surface-to-surface cruise missiles from the M/s BrahMos Aerospace Pvt. Ltd. (BAPL). These missiles costing Rs 1,700 crore are to be deployed on the two P-15B class of stealth guided missile destroyers and "is going to significantly enhance the operational capability of Indian Navy (IN) fleet assets" , said the MoD. The MoD said, "BAPL is a Joint Venture (JV) between India and Russia making a crucial contribution to augment the new generation Surface-to-Surface Missiles with enhanced range and dual role capability for land as well as anti-ship attacks." ENS

32 Indians lured in name of IT jobs rescued from Myanmar militants

YESHI SELI @New Delhi

AROUND 32 Indians have been rescued from the captivity of ethnic armed groups in Myawaddy, Myanmar, and almost 70 more Indians are yet be freed from similar captivities. Most of these hostage Indians were reportedly forced to commit cyber crimes by their captors.

The freed Indians were lured to a remote part of Myanmar on the pretext of lucrative jobs in the IT sector. Some fraudulent IT companies, which appear to be engaged in digital scamming and forged crypto activities, had lured the Indian nationals by using agents based in India, Thailand and the United Arab Emirates (UAE), external affairs ministry spokesperson Arindam Bagchi said on Thursday. IT jobs are being posted on social media and unsuspecting candidates are being lured to work in Thailand, however, they are being smuggled into Myawaddy area and forcibly made to work long shifts in cybercrimes, cryptocurrencies.

Several hundreds of Indians are still trapped there and many more who are oblivious of the trap continue to be recruited. Myawaddy is controlled by Ethnic Armed Organisations, who have lured citizens of dozens of countries including India, China, Indonesia, Brazil, Japan, Malaysia, Singapore, Pakistan and Bangladesh amongst others. Myawaddy is a town in Kayin State of Myanmar, close to the border with Thailand. The people after recruitment without any proper documentation are taken to Myanmar illegally and held captive there.

"These recruits are told that they would get visa on arrival in Thailand, whereas Thailand only gives tourist visas on arrival and not work visas, so we are cautioning Indians to not fall for such offers. Antecedents of the recruiting agents must be checked. We are in touch with our mission in Myanmar and Thailand,'' said Arindam Bagchi, spokesperson, Ministry of External Affairs.

Punjab gov cancels AAP's special session in Assembly on Thursday

HARPREET BAJWA @Chandigarh

IN the continuing tussle with Governor Banwarilal Purohit, the Mann-led AAP government has decided to hold a one-day assembly session on Sept 27. The government will also approach the Supreme Court against the "arbitrary and anti-democratic decision of the Governor" for cancelling the one-day session scheduled for Thursday.

The state cabinet in its meeting at the Chief Minister's Office on Thursday approved a recommendation to the Governor for the summoning of the third session of the 16th Punjab Vidhan Sabha on Sept 27.

State Finance Minister Harpal Singh Cheema said the Governor's action indicated that the BJP was trying to crush the Constitution and institutions. He asserted AAP would not bend before the BJP as the Congress did. On Sept 27, the government would take up the power supply situation and stubble burning, Cheema said.

AAP MLAs on Thursday held a peace march from the Assembly building to the Governor's house to protest Purohit's decision. Holding banners that said, 'Killer of Democracy' and 'Congress-BJP killing democracy', 'Stop Operation Lotus', AAP MLAs and workers raised slogans against the Opposition.

They alleged that the opposition was trying to halt the progress of the state government by working clandestinely against the ruling AAP in Punjab.

The MLAs dubbed the Governor's decision as a "mockery of democracy." The 'peace march' was stopped by the police near the Assembly building. BJP workers held a counter-protest and marched towards the CM's official residence. The police stopped them on the way in Sector 37. The police used water cannons and took the protestors in preventive custody.

Opposition SAD has sought a probe by the Supreme Court or the High Court into AAP charges on purchase of its MLAs.

SAD leader Bikram Singh Majithia said the inquiry should look into whether any BJP leader or any middleman offered Rs 25 crore each to AAP legislators to switch sides as claimed by ministers Harpal Cheema and Aman Arora.

Asserting that the Governor was right in withdrawing permission for a special session to enact a political drama on the lines of the one that took place in Delhi earlier, Leader of Opposition Partap Singh Bajwa said, "Punjab today is at a crossroads. What we are witnessing today is misgovernance propped up by paid advertisements at taxpayers' cost."

AAP will also approach Supreme Court

The government will also approach the Supreme Court against the "arbitrary and anti-democratic decision of the Governor" for cancelling the one-day session scheduled for Thursday.

AAP MLA, DCP fight over shops in Jalandhar

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Chandigarh

AN ugly spat broke out between Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) MLA from Jalandhar (Central) Raman Arora and Deputy Commissioner of Police (Security and Operations), Jalandhar Naresh Dogra on Wednesday over a property dispute between two shopkeepers of Shastri Nagar market of the city.

Sources said that late on Wednesday night a scuffle took place between two groups over a dispute related to keeping things in front of each other's shop. While one shop owner is close to Arora, another person is related to Dogra. Later both the groups gathered to sort out the matter where both Arora and Dogra allegedly had a verbal argument Later, when the supporters of Arora pushed Dogra, a scuffle ensued between both groups. Then both sides used abusive language and manhandled each other. Later, DCP (Investigation) Jaskiranjit Singh Teja came to Dogra's help whereas supporters of Arora, including MLA Sheetal Angural, also reached the spot.

Three men supporting Arora got injured and were admitted to the civil hospital. Other supporters of Arora also reached the hospital and pressed a doctor to issue a medico-legal report. They got into a fight with hospital staffers and ransacked the hospital. The authorities had to call the police.

Dussehra rally: BMC says no to Shinde, Thackeray

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @ Mumbai

बृहन्मुंबई महानगरपालिका मुख्यालय

The Brihanmumbai Municipal Corporation (BMC) has declined permission to the Uddhav Thackeray-led Shiv Sena as well as the party faction led by CM Shinde for holding the annual Dussehra rally at Shivaji Park in Mumbai on October 5, citing law and order issues. "As per the procedure, the BMC has to seek the local police report before allowing the rally at Shivaji Park. The police report has cited law and order problems in case only one faction is allowed. Therefore, the civic body has decided to cancel the permission," stated the BMC letter.

Another BMC official said it was not possible to divide the ground and allow both factions to hold the rally. "Therefore, BMC has declined permission to both camps as a precautionary measure," he said.

The local police station in a report submitted to the BMC stated that if one faction is allowed, then there could be a possibility of a political clash on the day of the rally.

Dadar has been a sensitive zone since the Shinde faction MLA Sada Sarvankar opened fire in a police station and threatened Shiv Sena workers.

The Dussehra rally is the most important event held by the Shiv Sena ever since the party's formation in 1966. The rally is held at the Shivaji Park ground since this area is in close proximity to the Shiv Sena Bhavan and is known as the party bastion.

This year, while the Thackerays have moved the Bombay High Court for permission, the Shinde group last week received permission to hold its rally at the Bandra Kurla Complex (BKC).

Shiv Sena Lok sabha MP Arvind Sawant said if the Shinde faction had the permission for the rally at BKC, then the Uddhav faction should be allowed the Shivaji Park venue. "We are firm on addressing the traditional Dussehra rally at Shivaji Park," Sawant said.

O P Rajbhar's shifting stance on CM Yogi

Trust SBSP chief O P Rajbhar to shift gear, or stance, before you bat your eyelid. An NDA ally and minister in Yogi 1.0, he upped the ante against by quitting the government after two years. He had accused CM Yogi Adityanath of neglecting backward sections. His Yogi-bashing credentials earned him the trust of SP chief Akhilesh Yadav and Rajbhar became his trusted ally who played a crucial role in arranging a bouquet of smaller political parties led by SP before 2022 UP polls. Early this week, Rajbhar met Yogi and immediately after that started singing a paean for him indicating emergence of new equations on the horizon before 2024.

State's bureaucracy shaken by top exits

The lure of power and perks doesn't seem to be attractive enough for a few bureaucrats in UP. Or could it be the case of greener pasture? Whatever may be the reason, the sudden decision of five IAS officers to seek voluntary retirement from the service has created a buzz in the state bureaucracy. Special secretary (Revenue) G Sreenivasulu is the officer to have quit the government job with eight years of service remaining. A day earlier, it was Vidya Bhusan, posted as MD, Purvanchal Vidyut Vitran Nigam, who opted for VRS. Last month, three IAS officers– Renuka Kumar, Juthika Patankar and Vikas Gothalwal –opted for voluntary retirement.

Mayor's all women-run market coming up

The city of nawabs is all set to have a market exclusively for women. Proposed to come up near Charbagh railway station, its foundation will be laid on October 19. The market is designed to promote women entrepreneurs, traders and businesswomen. The three-storey structure development will have 125 shops. These shops would only be allotted to women traders with women staff. Lucknow Mayor Sanyukta Bhatia, who had proposed the market on International Women's Day this year, feels the facility would add a new chapter to the story of women empowerment in the true sense as the market will equip the women to tread on path of self-reliance.

U'KHAND HOUSE: CONG RIFT WIDENS OVER JOB SCAM

NARENDRA SETHI @Dehradun

THE Congress' efforts to bury internal differences after its dismal performance in the Uttarakhand Assembly elections seem to be collapsing. The Assembly recruitment scam have refuelled infighting in the party. State Congress president Karan Mahara and ex-leader of Opposition Pritam Singh have begun to trade charges, with the former saying that appointments made during the tenure of the BJP as well as the Congress be probed.

However, the two leaders have also been targeting the Pushkar Singh Dhami-led government. While the Congress had earlier sought a CBI probe, Mahara now says that a high court judge should investigate the scam since an inquiry committee comprising former IAS officers cannot examine the legislature's decisions.

Also facing allegations are former Assembly Speaker Govind Singh Kunjwal and Yashpal Arya. As many as 105 people were appointed when Arya was the speaker from 2002 to 2007. He was in the Congress at that time, and later enjoyed a 'political cruise' in the BJP from 2017 to 2022. On the other hand, Kunjwal employed 150 people from 2012 to 2017, including his relatives, allegedly through the back door. The inquiry committee is examining all the 480 appointments made over 22 years.

The state Congress has also seen a major reshuffle in the recent months. While Mahara took over as the Uttarakhand party president, Arya, who returned to the Congress, became the leader of Opposition, replacing Pritam Singh. Although Singh retained his Chakrata seat, he has been kept away from any major responsibility by the party.

5-member Guj panel fails to curb stirs ahead of polls

A five-minister committee formed in Gujarat to quickly resolve issues that can trigger protests has failed to stop agitations in the state. At least 17 protests are being staged in Ahmedabad currently, mounting pressure on the state government ahead of the Assembly elections in December. Sources say PM Narendra Modi in the last meeting held at BJP headquarters in Gandhinagar had given September-end as the deadline to bring all the agitations to an end.

Among those protesting at present for various issues are teachers, class-4 government employees, health workers, farmers, candidates for Lok Rakshak Dal (LRD) recruitment, kin of government employees who died on duty, forest guards, mid-day meal employees, secretariat clerical staff and village computer entrepreneurs. On Thursday, hundreds of former and current state government employees joined a 'pen-down' protest across the state, demanding implementation of the old pension scheme (OPS). They also announced an indefinite strike from September 27. The government had earlier agreed to OPS for employees who joined the service before 2005. But the proposal was rejected by the National Old Pension Restoration United Front. The class-4 employees have a 14-point charter of demands, including OPS, no contractual recruitment, pay-grade parity, health insurance, provident fund, etc. Recently, the Chaudhary community launched protests against the arrest of their leader, Vipul Chaudhary, for alleged misappropriation of ₹750 crore during his tenure as the chairman of Mehsana Dudhsagar dairy. Farmers of north Gujarat are also protesting in the state capital against the central government 'Bharatmala project'. Meanwhile, the Bharatiya Kisan Sangh) wants the state government to declare uniform power tariff for farmers.

However, some protests have been withdrawn. Employees of Gujarat State Road Transport Corporation, ex-Army personnel, and Maldhari community rolled back their agitation on Wednesday after the government assured them of looking into the issue. According to political analyst Dilip Patel, Gujarat has never seen so many protests ahead of polls. "Protestors seem to understand well that this is the best time to raise their demands. If it continues, it will create a big problem for the BJP as the agitations belongs to various communities and sections," he said.

On Thursday, hundreds of former and current state government employees joined a 'pen-down' protest across the state

Unfazed by salary freeze, Pandit staffers reluctant to return to Valley

FAYAZ WANI @Srinagar

JAMMU and Kashmir administration has ordered withholding of salaries of migrant Kashmiri Pandit employees recruited under PM's job package for not joining their duties in militancy-hit Valley and demanding their relocation to Jammu since May 12 while striking Pandit employees have termed it a pressure tactics saying they won't join their duties in the Valley till security situation improves.

The Deputy Labour Commissioner Kashmir has directed all Assistant Labour Commissioners of Kashmir that salary for the month of September 2022 should not be drawn in respect of the PM Package employees, who have remained absent from duties during the month.

About 5,500 Pandit employees recruited under PM's job package in J&K have not been attending the official duties since May 12, when Pandit employee Rahul Bhat was shot dead by militants inside Tehsil office at Chadoora in central Kashmir's Budgam district.

Most of the Pandit PM package employees have left the Valley and are staying in Jammu, where they hold daily protests outside the office of Relief Commissioner to press for their relocation to Jammu.

Rubon Saproo, vice president All Migrant Displaced Employees Association Kashmir (AMDEAK) told this newspaper that majority of government departments have released salaries in favour of striking Pandit employees upto August.

"However, 40 per cent government departments have withheld the salaries of the Pandit employees for the last two to three months," he said.

Saproo said the Pandit PM package employees reject the order of Deputy Labour Commissioner Kashmir as "we feel it has been issued in haste without listening to our side as they have not ensured security of the employees".

Terming it a pressure tactic, he said till the matter is sorted out they should not resort to such things. Ranjan Jotshi vice president AMDEAK said the PM package employees have been protesting for the past 133 days in Jammu and not a single government official has visited them to hear their point of view or give suggestions for ending this issue.

Deputy Labour Commissioner issues the order

The Deputy Labour Commissioner Kashmir has directed all Assistant Labour Commissioners of Kashmir that salary for the month of September 2022 should not be drawn in respect of the PM Package employees, who have remained absent from duties during the month.

RSS chief introduced as 'Rashtra Pita'

BHAGWAT then went to the Madrasa Tajweedul Quran in Azadpur. During their hour-long meeting, Bhagwat agreed with Ilyasi that both Hindus and Muslims must work towards national unity.

At the madarasa, Ilyasi introduced the RSS chief to the students as Rashtra Pita, but Bhagwat intervened and said there is only one father of the nation, adding "we are Bharat ki santan" (children of Bharat). "With this visit, a message should go that we all want to work towards strengthening India," Ilyasi said.

On August 22, Bhagwat had met five Muslim intellectuals — Najeeb Jung, S Y Quraishi, Zameer Uddin Shah, Shahid Siddiqui and Saeed Shervani.

Leopard attacks bikers, no end in sight for man-animal conflict

NARENDRA SETHI @Dehradun

A leopard reportedly attacked and injured two bikers at tourist destination Lansdowne on Wednesday evening. The forest authorities have, however, denied such an attack and instead blamed "sudden scare leading to such a situation" due to the possible leopard movement in the area.

One of the youths, identified as Dheeraj Singh, has been referred to a Kotdwar hospital for treatment for serious injuries in his legs. The leopard attack has created panic among people. Leopard and tiger attacks have increased in Garhwal and Kumaon areas. Another biker, identified as Sunil, has suffered injuries in his arms.

On Wednesday, a leopard reportedly pounced on two bike-borne youths on the Lansdowne-Jaiharikhal motor road. The youths fell to the ground and were injured.

Later, Army personnel passing that route brought the two to the Cantt Hospital for treatment. Cantt Medical Officer Dr Manisha Agarwal said the two youths were injured after falling to the ground.

Since last month, several people have suffered injuries in leopard attacks.

However, divisional forest officer Dinkar Tiwari ruled out the possibility of a leopard attack in the case. Speaking to TNIE, he said: "Leopard activity in the area could have led to a sudden scare, resulting in bike riders losing control of the vehicle and falling off."

The forest department had recently caught a leopard by putting up a cage near the State Bank branch, after which the incidents of leopard attack had come down significantly.

DFO Dinkar Tiwari said his department has increased patrolling to detect leopard movements.

In another case, the forest department set up a cage on Saturday evening after a leopard killed a four-year-old girl in a Pithoragarh village.

Tiwari said he has received several requests to set up cages in the area for which higher authorities have been apprised.

'Sudden scare'

The forest authorities have, however, denied such an attack and instead blamed "sudden scare leading to such a situation" due to the possible leopard movement in the area.

31 killed in Iran's crackdown on stir: NGO

TEHRAN

AT least 31 civilians have been killed in an Iranian security forces crackdown on protests that erupted over the death of Mahsa Amini after her arrest by the morality police, an Oslo-based NGO said Thursday.

"The people of Iran have come to the streets to achieve their fundamental rights and human dignity... and the government is responding to their peaceful protest with bullets," Iran Human Rights (IHR) director Mahmood Amiry-Moghaddam said in a statement, publishing a toll after six days of protests.

IHR said it had confirmed protests taking place in over 30 cities and other urban centres, raising alarm over "mass arrests" of protesters and civil society activists.

Protests first erupted over the weekend in the northern province of Kurdistan, from where Amini originated, but have now spread across the country. IHR said its toll included the deaths of 11 people killed Wednesday night in the town of Amol in the northern Mazandaran province on the Caspian Sea, and six killed in Babol in the same province.

Meanwhile, the major northeastern city of Tabriz saw its first death in the protests, IHR said. "Condemnation and expression of concern by the international community are no longer enough," Amiry-Moghaddam said.

Earlier, Kurdish rights group Hengaw said 15 people had been killed in Kurdistan province and other Kurdish-populated areas of the north of Iran, including eight on Wednesday night.

NATIONWIDE ANTI-WAR PROTESTS ROCK RUSSIA

1,200 held; wives threaten to break husbands' legs to avoid conscription

MOSCOW/NEW YORK

NEARLY 1,200 Russians were arrested in anti-war demonstrations in cities including Moscow and St Petersburg since Wednesday night, according to the independent Russian human rights group OVD-Info.

Demonstrations erupted soon after Russian president Vladimir Putin ordered a partial mobilization of reservists on Wednesday.

Journalists in the Russian capital witnessed at least a dozen arrests in the first 15 minutes of a nighttime protest in the city, with police in heavy body armour tackling demonstrators in front of shops, hauling some away as they chanted, "No to war!"

"I'm not afraid of anything. The most valuable thing that they can take from us is the life of our children. I won't give them life of my child," said one Muscovite, who declined to give her name. Asked whether protesting would help, she said: "It won't help, but it's my civic duty to express my stance. No to war!"

In Yekaterinburg, Russia's fourth-largest city, police hauled onto buses some of the 40 protesters who were detained at an anti-war rally. One woman in a wheelchair shouted, referring to the Russian president: "Goddamn bald-headed 'nut job'. He's going to drop a bomb on us, and we're all still protecting him. I've said enough."

Riot police detain a demonstrator during a protest against mobilisation, in Moscow on Wednesday night | AP

The Vesna opposition movement called for protests, saying: "Thousands of Russian men — our fathers, brothers and husbands — will be thrown into the meat grinder of the war. What will they be dying for? What will mothers and children be crying for?"

The Moscow prosecutor's office warned that organising or participating in protests could lead to up to 15 years in prison. Authorities have issued similar warnings ahead of other protests. Wednesday's were the first nationwide anti-war protests since the fighting began in late February. Interestingly, dozens of women have threatened to break their husbands' legs so as to make them unfit to go to battlefield. "I will not let my husband go. I'll break his both legs. His duty is to raise his children," a woman was quoted as saying by express.co.uk

Other Russians responded by trying to leave the country, and flights out quickly became booked.

PUNISH PUTIN: BLINKEN

US Secretary of State Antony Blinken called on every UN Security Council member to "send a clear message" to Russia that it must stop its nuclear threats in the war in Ukraine. He urged the world to hold Vladimir Putin accountable for the invasion of Ukraine, at a session of the UN Security Council attended by Russia. "We cannot — we will not — let President Putin get away with it," Blinken said, and accused Putin of adding "fuel to the fire" with recent steps including calling up reservists and planning referendums in Russian-held Ukrainian territory.

Re hits all-time low of 80.87 Vs USD

As RBI exhausts arsenal to defend rupee, local currency likely heading towards 82/$ level

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @New Delhi

RUPEE MELTDOWN

- Rupee lost 89 paise to touch its lowest level of 80.87 against US dollar
- The Indian currency has lost 9.9% against US dollar in last one year
- RBI has sold dollar at different point to support rupee
- India's Forex Reserve has shrunk by $92 billion since November 2021

REGISTERING its biggest single-day fall in six months, the Indian rupee crashed to a new low against the US dollar after a steep interest rate hike by the Federal Reserve and its hawkish stance weighed on investor sentiments.

The rupee fell 90 paise to close at an all-time low of 80.87 (provisional) and now it is closer to 81 per dollar, with few trade analysts even predicting a fall of up to 82 a dollar mark. A lot now depends on India's central bank – the RBI – intervenes to counter this fall. At the interbank foreign exchange market, the rupee opened at 80.27 on Thursday against its previous close of 79.97, then fell further to an all-time intra-day low of 80.95 against the US currency. Forex traders said the US Fed's rate hike and escalation of geopolitical risk in Ukraine along with a muted trend in domestic equities and firm crude oil prices weighed heavily on the rupee.

The RBI was less aggressive today in defending the local currency. "The central bank seems to have not intervened aggressively. However, in the coming sessions, we expect RBI to step in and contain volatility. Therefore, a range of 80.40 and 81.20 can be seen," said Anindya Banerjee, VP, currency derivatives and interest rate derivatives at Kotak Securities. RBI for the past few months has been selling dollar from its reserve to support rupee and prevent it from breaching 80/$ mark. India's forex reserves have declined by $90 billion from their September 2021 peak of $642 billion. Santosh Meena, head of research, Swastika Investmart, said for the RBI it will be difficult to intervene and take strict actions to curb rupee depreciation as the liquidity in the banking system has swung into deficit mode after remaining in a surplus for nearly 40 months and at the current juncture, the RBI doesn't want to derail the economic recovery. Meanwhile, India's equity benchmarks -- Sensex and Nifty shed another 0.5% on Thursday as indices across the globe were trading in the red, following Fed's rate hike and hawkish stance.

The Sensex fell 337 points to close at 59,119, while Nifty slipped 88 points to end at 17,629. "Rising rates will put pressure on the RBI to react as well to protect the INR and avoid financial stress. In such a scenario, it is wise to avoid cash-burning businesses and businesses that have too high debt. Consumer sectors are leading the pack and this might continue to be the theme," said Sonam Srivastava, smallcase manager & founder, Wright Research.

SpiceJet pilots to get 20% hike in salary from October

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

SPICEJET has offered a 20% salary hike to its pilots, days after it had put nearly 80 pilots on leave without pay. This latest rise in salaries follows a 6% hike announced last month.

This development comes amid reports that the struggling airline received the first tranche of Emergency Credit Line Guarantee Scheme (ECLGS) payment of around ₹125 crore last week.

Captain Gurucharan Arora, SVP-Flight Operations at SpiceJet, said in a mail, "Keeping with our commitment of increasing salaries in a calibrated manner as our business improves, the salary for the month of October will see an increase of around 20% for our Captains and Senior First Officers."

The mail added that the airline has received loan approval under the Centre's ECLGS scheme, adding the first tranche of this loan has already been received. It also mentioned that the airline is looking to raise an additional $200 million.

The loss-making airline had few days back sent nearly 80 pilots on leave without pay for three months. SpiceJet, which has been making losses the past four years, is actively scouting for funds to stay afloat.

OTT players may need licence to operate in India

RAKESH KUMAR @New Delhi

OVER-the-top (OTT) players such as Whatsapp, Zoom and Google Duo may require a licence to operate in India soon, as they provide calling and messaging services, according to the draft Indian Telecommunication Bill 2022.

The draft Bill, which seeks to replace the Indian Telegraph Act, 1885, the Indian Wireless Telegraphy Act, 1933, and the Telegraph Wires Act, 1950, is a move by the telecom ministry to enhance ease of doing business.

The draft Bill propses the right to waive partly or fully any fee, including licence fees, entry fee, registration fee. In case of default of payment under extraordinary circumstances, the government can defer payment of such amounts, convert a part or all of the amounts payable into shares, write-off payable amounts or provide relief from payment.

It proposes to dilute the TRAI's role of being a recommendatory body. The Biill proposes to do away with requirement that the telecom department has to seek the TRAI's views before issuing a new licence to a service provider.

The draft Bill seeks to bring clarity to the ownership issue of spectrum in case of bankruptcy. It proposed that if a service provider goes through bankruptcy or insolvency, the assigned spectrum will revert to the control of the Centre.

Changes proposed in the draft Bill

- OTT Players may need licence to operate in India as they provide calling and messaging services
- Govt will have right to waive partly, fully any fee, including licence fee
- Any facility provider may submit application seeking RoW to a person owing a private property

With regard to RoW (right of way) over private property, it recognises the importance of negotiation and mutual agreement. Any facility provider may submit an application seeking RoW to a person under whose ownership, control, or management a private property is vested. The Bill has been put out for public consultations and the last date to send comments on the same is October 20.

Jaideep Ghosh, COO of Shardul Amarchand Mangaldas & Co, said, "Clarity has been provided on spectrum allocation, restructuring, insolvency, and user protection, among others. OTT is proposed to be considered as a telecom service, which may see some developments. Repurposing the Universal Service Obligation (USO) fund as Telecommunication Development Fund to provide funding for R&D and skill development is much welcome," he added.

Australia looks for collaboration with India for lithium-ion batteries

MONIKA YADAV @New Delhi

AUSTRALIA is looking forward to collaborating with India for lithium-ion battery production to expand its presence in the electric vehicle segment globally. It has invited a couple of big Indian auto companies to explore mining opportunities there.

This is in line with India's growth projection for EVs sales till 2030. The government has set the target of EV sales penetration of 30% of private cars, 70% of commercial cars, 40% of buses and 80% of two and three-wheelers by 2030, which amounts to having 8 crore EVs on road.

"A couple of Indian auto companies have been invited by Australia to explore lithium mining there. If this materialises, then Australia will benefit in terms of demand for its product. The US, besides some other countries, sources lithium from Australia under their free trade agreement (FTA). Collaboration with India will give further boost to its product," an industry source who didn't want to be quoted told TNIE.

"It will be a game-changer for India's EV market. These batteries are mainly imported from Taiwan and China, so setting up a factory here would lower the production cost and attract companies like Tesla," the source stated. Meanwhile, the collaboration will also help the country in fulfilling its global commitments to decrease carbon emissions and give impetus to use of clean energy in line with the targets laid out by Nationally Determined Contributions (NDCs) under the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change.

India and Australia in April this year had signed India-Australia Economic Cooperation and Trade Agreement (IAECTA) to double trade between the two nations and create one million jobs.

In addition, as per sources, US Commerce Secretary will also likely visit India later this year to seek opportunities in the semiconductor sector.

India's EV push

Govt has set the target of EV sales penetration of 30% of private cars, 70% of commercial cars, 40% of buses and 80% of two and three-wheelers by 2030, which amounts to having 8 crore EVs on road

RBI cancels licence of Laxmi Co-op Bank

MUMBAI: The Reserve Bank of India on Thursday said it has cancelled licence of Solapur (Maharashtra) based The Laxmi Co-operative Bank as the lender doesn't have adequate capital and earning prospects. As per the data submitted by the cooperative bank, more than 99% of the depositors are entitled to receive full amount of their deposits from Deposit Insurance and Credit Guarantee Corporation (DICGC), the RBI said in a statement. As of September 13, 2022, the DICGC has already paid Rs 193.68 crore of the total insured deposits, it added. PTI

SC sentences Singh brothers to six months in jail

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

Fortis Healthcare case

The apex court also refused to revoke a stay on the open offer by Malaysia's IHH Healthcare Berhard for a 26% stake in Fortis Healthcare, which was once also owned by the Singh brothers

IN a fresh blow to former Ranbaxy promoters -- Malvinder Singh and Shivender Singh -- the Supreme Court on Thursday sentenced the two six months of jail in a contempt case for concealing information about wrongdoing at Ranbaxy during its sale of majority stake to Daiichi Sankyo.

The apex court also refused to revoke a stay on the open offer by Malaysia's IHH Healthcare Berhard for a 26% stake in Fortis Healthcare, which was once also owned by the Singh brothers. A bench headed by Chief Justice of India UU Lalit also ordered a forensic audit of the Fortis IHH deal, and asked the Delhi High Court to decide on the open offer. The court also imposed a cost of Rs 5000 on the brothers in a plea filed by Japanese Pharma firm Daichii Sankyo. Malaysia's IHH bought a 31% controlling stake in Fortis Healthcare for ₹4,000 crore through the bidding route in 2018. Daiichi Sankyo had challenged the Fortis-IHH deal to recover the Rs 3,600 crore arbitration award it had won in a Singapore tribunal against Fortis' erstwhile promoters.

After the challenge by the Japanese drug maker, the Supreme Court in December 2018 had ordered status quo in the matter, thus stalling the open offer by IHH.

The Japanese pharma company had acquired Ranbaxy from Malvinder Singh and Shivinder Singh for $4.6 billion in 2008. The shares of Fortis Healthcare took a beating after the order as prices crashed 15% on Thursday. The stock opened at ₹318 and fell to a low of ₹250 during the day before closing at ₹265. The company in an exchange filing said: "We remain committed to our core purpose of patient care and will continue to focus on our strategic and operational objectives to further strengthen and expand our healthcare network. We will keep all our stakeholders informed, as required."

VALUATION

Oyo refutes SoftBank's valuation markdown

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Bengaluru

HOTEL booking company Oyo on Thursday said reports on its valuation markdown is "patently incorrect".

As per reports, SoftBank Group has cut down Oyo Hotels valuation by 20% as the firm prepares for an IPO. It has cut Oyo's valuation from $3.4 billion to $2.7 billion.

But Oyo in a statement said speculations about valuation markdown is patently incorrect. "Valuation is an outcome of business performance. As per our latest audited results, we have clocked ₹7 crore maiden adjusted EBITDA profit in the June quarter, at 41% gross profit margin and a 45% increase in gross booking value per hotel per month as against last financial year," an Oyo spokesperson said. "These are improved results and the strong performance trajectory is expected to continue. Hence, there is no rational basis for a markdown," the spokesperson said. SoftBank is the largest shareholder in Oyo, which has been planning to make a stock market debut. The hotel booking firm said it has not decided the exact timing for the IPO and the public issue valuation is also speculative. "SEBI has given OYO permission to file updated financials till the September 2022 quarter and will initiate the approval process post the filing of audited numbers," Oyo said.

Govt lost ₹58,521 crore in taxes due to illicit goods in 5 industries

ARSHAD KHAN @New Delhi

THE estimated tax loss to the government due to illicit goods in five industries -- mobile phones, FMCG-household and personal goods, FMCG-packaged foods, tobacco products and alcoholic beverages – stood at ₹58,521 crore in the financial year (FY) 2019-20, according to a report.

According to FICCI Committee Against Smuggling and Counterfeiting Activities Destroying the Economy (CASCADE) report released on Thursday, two highly regulated and taxed industries, tobacco products and alcoholic beverages, account for nearly 49 % of the overall tax loss to the government even as their total size in illicit trade was much lower than the FMCG industry.

The tax loss across these sectors stood at ₹17,074 crore (FMCG packaged foods), ₹15,262 crore (alcoholic beverages), ₹13,331 crore (tobacco products), ₹9,995 crore (FMCG household and personal goods), and ₹2,859 crore (mobile phones).

Government levies a tax of 58.14% on tobacco products (excluding bidi), while tax on alcoholic beverages, based on the analysis of 14 liquor companies and excise duty paid by them, is in the range of 64-65%. Hence, tax loss due to illicit trade in these sectors is much more than other sectors which attract taxes between 12-18%.

FICCI has estimated that the size of illicit markets in five industries was ₹2,60,094 crore for the year 2019-20, with the FMCG industry — household and personal goods, and packaged foods — together accounting for three-fourth of the total illicit value.

The FMCG packaged foods industry held the highest share of illicit market at ₹1,42,284 crore, and was followed by FMCG household and personal goods at ₹55,530 crore, alcoholic beverages at ₹23,466 crores, tobacco products at ₹22,930 crore, and mobile phone at ₹15,884 crore

The report further estimates legitimate employment loss of 15.96 lakh due to illicit trade. The maximum number of jobs (7.94 lakh) were lost in the labour-intensive FMCG packaged foods industry, followed by tobacco (3.7 lakh), FMCG household and personal goods (2.989 lakh), alcoholic beverages (0.979 lakh), and mobile phone industry (0.35 lakh).

Anil Rajput, Chairman of FICCI CASCADE, said, "Smuggling is the deadliest form of Illicit trade. Besides causing severe damage to the exchequer, in the form of revenue loss, proliferating terrorism by allowing terror groups to get funds and impacting consumer health and safety, it leads to unemployment by exporting jobs out of the country."

BUSINESS SPENDS MARKET TO TOUCH $15 TN BY 2030: REPORT

UMA KANNAN @Bengaluru

WITH the increase in digital payments and fintech companies working on new products in the space, business spends market in India is expected to reach $15 trillion by 2030 from from $7 trillion now.

A whitepaper released by global management consulting firm Kearney and En-Kash said though India is ahead in digitisation, there is more room to improve payments. Nidhi Tiwari, Partner, Kearney, said business spends are those that companies are doing towards either employee expenses, supplier or vendor payments spends, and this will reach $15 trillion by the end of this decade.

"At present, small enterprises are using only cheques for payments, and cash payments are still prevalent in case of micro enterprises. After the pandemic, the penetration of digital payments has gone up and medium organisations are using either UPI or bank accounts," she said, adding that close to 70-80% of payments in medium enterprises are happening through digital mode.

About 97% of the total businesses in India are small and medium (SMBs), micro enterprises and unincorporated entities, while medium to large scale corporates account for 2%. At the current rate, SMBs and similar players are likely to play a bigger role in the operations of all businesses, said Kearney.

Tiwari said though businesses have digitised the transfer of cash, the activities involved in enabling the processing are primarily manual. Though corporates are digitising the processes, the small to medium size businesses are still evaluating various options.

The report said end-to-end digitisation of the payment process can release significant value for businesses. Of the 64 million businesses in India, there are about 3-4 million businesses that have shown rapid progress in digitising. Interestingly, commercial cards have medium adoption in large enterprises and low adoption in medium and small enterprises.

33% of CY22 phone sales likely this festive season

RAKESH KUMAR @New Delhi

THE upcoming festive season is turning out to be a boon for the smartphone makers, as 33% of the 2022 smartphone sales is expected to happen in this season.

Consumers have shown lukewarm response to smartphone buying so far this year due to rising inflation, but festive season will boost up the sale, say analysts. "Festive season gives consumers a good chance to buy at discounted prices, especially in the premium segment. We see 1 out of 3 smartphones sold in 2022, will be during the festive season and 1 of the 3 smartphones sold during the festive season will be a 5G smartphone," said Faisal Kawoosa, founder and chief analyst at researcher TechARC. Sharing the same view, Prabhu Ram, head - Industry Intelligence Group, CMR, said with 5G rollouts around the corner, 5G premium smartphones and 5G value-for-money smartphones will be on top of the consumer purchase consideration list in this festival season.

As per Counterpoint Research, this festive season smartphone sales will account for nearly $7.7 billion, the highest ever. However, the research also estimated a 9% year-on-year decline in terms of unit sales. In terms of smartphone category, Prabhu Ram believes, there will be healthy sales for value-for-money smartphone in range of ₹7,000 to ₹24,999. A report by TechArc reads nearly 38% of volume sales are likely to comprise premium 5G smartphones in the ₹25,000-₹50,000 price range, in luxury segment it will be ₹50,000 or above.

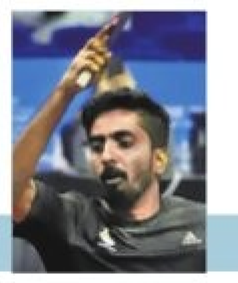
National Games: Paddler Shetty survives scare



Third seed Sanil Shetty survived a scare while top seed G Sathiyan (in pic) and second seed A Sharath Kamal registered easy wins to advance to the third round of the TT competition in the National Games in Surat. Uttar Pradesh's Divyansh Srivastava made Shetty toil but the latter managed to hold his nerve to post 11-5, 7-11, 9-11, 11-8, 11-9, 7-11, 11-9 win.

BCCI calls for AGM on October 18 to elect office-bearers

VENKATA KRISHNA B @Chennai

THE Board of Control for Cricket in India (BCCI) has called for its annual general body meeting on October 18, where among the 26-point agenda, the foremost is the election of the office-bearers. While all the incumbents are allowed to seek another term following the changes made to the constitution with the Supreme Court's approval, all things point to Sourav Ganguly making way for secretary Jay Shah to take over as president.

According to a notification sent to all the affiliated units, Shah said the AGM will take place in Mumbai on October 18. The venue and the timing of the AGM is yet to be finalized. While all eyes will be on the election, the most significant agenda is agenda X, which is the women's IPL. As first reported by this newspaper, the BCCI is planning to host the inaugural edition of the Women's IPL in March involving six teams. Once it is approved in the floor of the AGM, the BCCI will formally begin the process to kickstart the event.

The agenda also mentions the appointment of cricket committees and standing committees as mentioned in the constitution. While the incumbents can continue in the role, the west zone slot in the senior selection panel remains vacant since February. With an interview process a must to pick a selector, the BCCI is likely to advertise for the same in the coming days.

KEY POINTS IN THE AGENDA

- Election of office-bearers
- Women's IPL
- Update on new NCA
- Revised infrastructure subsidy policy

There are also quite a few unhappy voices with in the BCCI about the men's senior selection committee led by Chetan Sharma. Although there are no talks of changing the entire panel, officials are not ruling out the possibility of bringing in a more experienced player as a chairman.

With regards to the election of office-bearers, Shah is the overwhelming favourite to take over as president, which will make him the youngest ever in BCCI's history. With Shah supposed to enter a cooling-off period after the completion of the second term — his next term will begin at the AGM — it is unlikely he will let go of a chance to helm the BCCI.

In that case, treasurer Arun Kumar Dhumal is tipped to replace Shah as secretary. However, Dhumal could face a challenge from Anirudh Chaudhary, the former treasurer, who has completed his cooling-off tenure and is eligible to contest. If not for secretary's post, Chaudhary will be in fray for the treasurer's post. While all things point to vice-president Rajeev Shulka continuing for one more year, there is likely to be change for the joint-secretary post too. Kerala's Jayesh George is expected to make way with one from Karnataka State Cricket Association or Tamil Nadu Cricket Association getting the post.

The BCCI will also pick its representative for ICC meetings. With the Supreme Court removing the 70-year age cap, former BCCI president N Srinivasan stands a chance to represent the board in ICC meetings.

In-form Indrajith making hay while the sun shines

TN batter scores brisk century, helps South take lead over West Zone in Duleep final

Baba Indrajith celebrates after crossing three-figure mark on Thursday | BCCI

GOMESH S @Coimbatore

BABA Indrajith doesn't hesitate to speak his mind. Whether it's about the power-hitting he has worked on or the kind of space he has been in over the past year, or the opportunities that haven't come his way. Admittedly, he is in a zone where he knows what he is doing and is controlling all the controllables he can. He has scored three hundreds and a fifty in the Ranji Trophy, and a fifty in the Duleep Trophy semifinal against North Zone.

And Thursday was no different as the 28-year-old hit one of his most fluent centuries (118 from 125 balls), helping South Zone (318/7) secure the first innings lead against West Zone in the final at the Sri Ramakrishna Arts and Science College Ground Coimbatore. Walking in at 40/2, Indrajith hardly put a foot wrong. He was getting onto the front foot, defending below his eye, and leaving those he had to. He survived a tough spell of Jaydev Unadkat who was coming wide of the crease from around the wicket while angling it in before taking it away from the right-hander. Once the Tamil Nadu batter got his eye in, there was no stopping him. He brought out the cover drives, the sweep shots, the late cuts, cruising towards a 112-ball century.

In fact, through this year, Indrajith has been going through a purple patch of sorts in red-ball cricket — the last seven scores read 118, 12, 65, 52, 100, 166 & 117. This is why, it came as a surprise, not just to others, but to the batter himself, when he wasn't picked for the India A series against New Zealand A. But, he just wants to work on things he can control and make every opportunity count.

While Indrajith has always done well in first-class cricket, what has changed is the pace at which he has scored those runs. The TN batter attributes it to the change in mindset. He says that he doesn't curb his instincts as he used to in the past. "If there is a ball to be hit, I am not restricting myself," he said after the day's play. "So, I think on good wickets, and the outfield is good — and I run well between wickets — whenever I get an opportunity I try and get those runs. I'm still grinding and playing but on certain occasions, I would not have gone for those shots maybe. Previously, if I had played 125 balls, I would have been on 65 or 70," laughs Indrajith.

He believes that working on his white-ball game with coach RX Murali after being left out of TN's T20 side last year is now reflecting on his batting in red-ball cricket as well. Since then, he has had a good Vijay Hazare, got picked for Kolkata Knight Rides in the IPL, was prolific in the Ranji, and now, Duleep Trophy as well. "I can't pinpoint and say this is the reason. You don't expect yourself to go and get those runs. It can't happen easily. First, the initial plan is to play 20-30 balls. If I get my eye in, if I don't get out before that, I try and make it count," said Indrajith adding that he was more disappointed on not converting the 118 into a big score.

Brief scores: West Zone 270 all out in 96.3 ovs (Patel 98; Sai Kishore 5/86) vs South Zone 318/7 in 81 ovs (Indrajith 118, Pandey 48, Gowtham 43; Unadkat 3/52, Sheth 3/51).

Focus on bowlers in must-win tie

India's bowling will be under lens as Australia aim to seal series in Nagpur. A look at the second T20I...

WILL BUMRAH BE BACK?

That's the main question. Bilateral series can often be lacking in context but there is one here. The pacer hasn't played competitive international T20 for a long time and the window to see how his body holds is fast closing. If he's fully fit, expect him to replace Umesh Yadav.

INDIA'S DEATH BOWLING

A few months ago, Bhuvneshwar Kumar was a lock. Two overs with the new ball to find some swing, as many overs at the death for a measure of control. After conceding a hatful of runs at the death, he's suddenly a bowler under pressure. Along with Harshal Patel, the two were taken for plenty in the last game in Mohali.

FINCH AND GREEN

Australia have struggled for runs at the top but the captain Aaron Finch finally got some runs in the first match. Of even more significance were Cameron Green's runs as a makeshift opener. If the combination does click over a period of time, it will give the selectors some food for thought in terms of team combinations at the World Cup.

Pacers Shardul & Kuldeep bring A game

ASHOK VENUGOPAL @Chennai

Ruturaj Gaikwad hit 41 to help India A chase down target on Thursday | R SATISH BABU

PENETRATIVE bowling by Shardul Thakur (4/32) and Kuldeep Sen (3/30), who picked up seven wickets among themselves, enabled India A to thrash New Zealand A by seven wickets in the first unofficial ODI played at the MA Chidambaram stadium here on Thursday. The duo's effort and Rajat Patidar's unbeaten 45 helped the hosts take a 1-0 lead in the three-match unofficial ODI series. After being asked to bat first, New Zealand A were bundled out for 167 and the Sanju Samson-led side chased down the target with ease in the 32nd over.

The New Zealand A side, which has players with a fair amount of first class and List A exposure, gave a poor batting display. They were reeling at 78 for eight at one stage and at that stage, it looked like they'll be dismissed for under 100 runs. But a stubborn ninth-wicket 89-run stand between Michael Rippon (61) and Joe Walker (36) helped the visitors to get past the 100-run mark.

The visiting batters failed to adapt to the game. The top-order caved in without a fight due to poor shot selection. When the need of the hour was to have a feel of the surface and conditions, they tried to go hammer and tongs from the word go and paid the price.

Shardul, who spoke after the game, was surprised by the Kiwis' approach. He insisted that the movement that the Indian pacers got in the air in the morning helped them run through the visitors' top order. ''I think it's good a wicket. Fortunately, we got early wickets and that helped us a lot in the innings. I was actually surprised that they lost five wickets in the power play. Didn't expect them to lose so many wickets and as soon as I bowled first, I knew that the pitch is good for batting. With the games starting early at 9 in the morning, so that one hour there was something in the air and probably which helped us do that (run through the Kiwi top-order),'' said Shardul.

Shardul hit the deck in the right areas and bowled at a lively pace. The Kiwi top-order had trouble picking his length.

His first spell read 4-1-7-2, which gave a solid start to India A. The Maharashtra-born player last played against West Indies in a T20I in February and has not been part of the Indian team that is playing against Australia. He featured against Zimbabwe in an ODI series last month and is hopeful of an India call-up.

''I have actually been bowling all the while. I'm bowling well and even when I played the last white-ball series, I had taken wickets and I'm looking for a national call-up again whenever they want my services,'' he said.

Brief scores: New Zealand A 167 in 40.2 ovs (Michael Rippon 61, Joe Walker 36; Shardul Thakur 4/32, Kuldeep Sen 3/30) lost to India A 170/3 in 31.5 ovs (Rajat Patidar 45 n.o, Ruturaj Gaikwad 41, Rahul Tripathi 31; Sanju Samson 29 n.o).

India eye memorable finish

AGENCIES @Canterbury

INDIA women's cricket team captain Harmanpreet Kaur wants to give a befitting farewell to veteran pacer Jhulan Goswami by winning the "special" final ODI against England at the iconic Lord's on Saturday. "The Lord's game is very special for us because it's Jhulan's retirement and we wanted to enjoy that game and I'm happy that we were able to win today (Wednesday) and now we can just have fun in that game," the India skipper said after trouncing hosts England by 88 runs to win a series on their soil after 23 years.

Brief scores: India Women 333/5 in 50 ovs (Harmanpreet 143 n.o, Harleen 58) bt England Women 245 in 44.2 ovs (Danni 65, Alice 39; Renuka 4/57).

We made each other better: Federer

HOWARD FENDRICH @London

(from L) Andy Murray, Novak Djokovic, Roger Federer & Rafael Nadal ahead of Laver Cup in London. The Big 4 will be joining hands for Team Europe | AP

ROGER Federer is a father of four — two girls who are 13, two boys who are 8 — and so perhaps that is why, as he wraps up his playing career, he thinks about the "GOAT" debate that has engulfed the tennis world the way parents might look at their children.

Folks love to ask: Who's the "Greatest of All-Time" in men's tennis, Federer, Rafael Nadal or Novak Djokovic? "People always like to compare. I see it every day with my twins. Without wanting, you compare them. You shouldn't — ever," Federer said during an interview with The Associated Press on Wednesday, hours after his farewell news conference at the arena that will host the 20-time Grand Slam champion's final competition, the Laver Cup.

"Naturally, we do the same in tennis. ... I am my own career, my own player, that needed those challenges. They needed a challenger like myself," he said, leaning back on a couch, having traded in the blue blazer and polo shirt he wore earlier for a post-practice navy pullover, white T-shirt and black jogger pants. "We made each other better. So at the end of the day, we'll all shake hands and be like, 'That was awesome.' Now is somebody going to be happier than the other? I mean, in moments, maybe."

He called the topic "a good conversation, let's be honest" and "definitely a fun debate" that "you can endlessly talk about."

But he also used the word "silly," given all that he, 22-time major champ Nadal and 21-time major champ Djokovic have accomplished. —AP

SC tasks ex-SC judge to amend IOA constitution

SHRUTI KAKKAR @New Delhi

TO ensure fair and development-oriented future of Olympic sports in India, the Supreme Court on Thursday tasked former SC judge L Nageswara Rao for amending the constitution of Indian Olympic Association (IOA), preparing electoral college as well as finalising the timeline for elections.

Asking the IOA to place the amended constitution before top court by December 15, 2022, a bench of Justices DY Chandrachud and Hima Kohli in their order said, "We accordingly request Justice LN Rao, former judge of this court, to take up the assignment in the interest of ensuring a fair and development oriented future of Olympics sports in India. Justice LN Rao will be at liberty to fix the same in consultation with the IOA. Amendment to the constitution may be placed before this court. Simultaneously, the preparation of the electoral college and election schedule may also proceed to take place."

Against the backdrop of execution of MoU's by IOA with the Secretary General, Govt of Gujarat and Gujarat Olympic Association with regards to National Games and Secretary General being in-charge of day-to-day administration for committees formed for preparation of the games, bench also said that Rajeev Mehta will remain as Secretary General of IOA till further orders.

On senior advocate Maneka Guruswamy's contention that the secretary general had lost confidence of the executive body and this was one of the issues before the bench, Justice Chandrachud said, "We can't have a situation where there is nobody. See the difficulty we have to have someone in place. Will they be able to run? They've said he will be the contact point."

With regards to the joint meeting that is scheduled to be conducted on September 27 between the members of IOA and International Olympic Committee, the bench in its order noted that IOA will be represented by Mehta and vice president Adille J. Sumariwalla. Noting that the joint secretary of sports ministry would be representing the Centre in the meeting in Lausanne, the bench tasked the secretary to submit a report to the court.

CHASING SUCCESS

Eight minutes no longer impossible for Sable

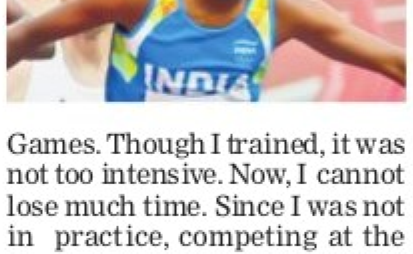
INDRANEEL DAS @Chennai

THE myth of the eight-minute mark in 3000m steeplechase is within grasp. It may even turn into reality. Time and again, Avinash Sable has fought with himself and his timings. He improved them and in the quest for the improbable, he won India a silver at the Commonwealth Games, first by an Indian male in the steeple chase; he has also busted national records nine times since the Bhubaneswar senior nationals in 2018; brought down his timing from 8:29.80s to 8:11.20s at the Birmingham CWG. In short, in this short span, he has emerged as one of the top athletes to look out for in the steeplechase.

Sable believes that the eight minute can be breached or at least reached. During an interview for TNIE Sports Pod, he opened up about his training and preparation for next year.

He feels that he could have dipped below 8:10.00 by now if he could have trained the same way for the last two years or so. However, for next year, he wants to start preparing right now. Basically, his season starts with off-season. "I want to start training and chalk out my programme for the off-season with the coach," he said. "If I train like the way I trained this season, I will be able to run 8:05.00s or even 8 minutes. Since the World Championships is slated for next year, it will be crucial for me to prepare well."

For Sable, next year will be quite hectic. "I took a few days off after the Commonwealth Games. Though I trained, it was not too intensive. Now, I cannot lose much time. Since I was not in practice, competing at the National Games might be difficult. I know it's a big event for athletes because it's taking place after quite a few years, but sometimes we have to re-think. I will start the off-season training in a few days. Next season will be vital with the World Championships and then the Olympics in 2024."



Sable is hoping to start his quest for that sub 8:10s from the Doha Diamond League next year. "I need good competitions and those competitions will be abroad," he said. "I have to train and compete with athletes abroad because here, there is not much competition. If I do that I am sure I will improve my timing further.

"During practice (full season), I cannot devote time to anything so when I got time after the Commonwealth Games, I gave time to things that needed my attention," he said. "We focus on building on endurance and run more. We take a closer look at our technique and find out the faults and rectify it. We focus on strength and develop our core and also see where all we faltered in the last season. Every off season I run one or two half-marathons so I am looking at a couple this time also. There is Delhi Half-marathon and I am thinking of participating there."

He also wants to start an academy back home. "There is a huge talent pool from where I come from. I'm thinking to start the process soon. Of course, I have to focus on my training and event but I think we can at least start the process," he said. "If I start after three-four years, then the talent we have now among the junior athletes will not benefit. But if we can support them or help them in some way and motivate them towards the sport, then their development will be better."
